The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

The following Addreſſes were deſigned for laſt Week's Paper, but, for Want of Room, obliged to be deferred.

NEW-YORK, November 20.

To his Excellency Sir HENRY MOORE, Baronet, Captain General, and Governor in chief in and over the colony of New-York, and the territories depending thereon in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral of the ſame,

The humble ADDRESS of the General Aſſembly of the ſaid colony.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful ſubjects, the general aſſembly of the colony of New-York, return your Excellency our moſt hearty thanks for your ſpeech.

The ſatisfaction your Excellency expreſſes, in being permitted to relieve the diſtreſs this colony is fallen into through the want of a medium of trade, cannot but be extremely agreeable to us, as it affords a further proof of your attention to, and concern for, our intereſts.

We are deeply ſenſible of his Majeſty's paternal care and tender regard for all his ſubjects; and we are confident we ſhall ever be ready to make ſuch returns of duty and ſubmiſſion, as may be expected from the moſt loyal ſubjects, to the beſt of Sovereigns.

Had your Excellency been permitted by the inſtructions you have received, to have paſſed a bill for the iſſuing of paper money in the uſual manner, we ſhould have been ſo cautious in the exerciſe of that power, that no perſon, either at home or abroad, would have been in the leaſt danger of being injured in his property; and the publick credit of this colony would have been, as it ever has been, the object of our peculiar care and attention: But ſince we fear that no bill for that purpoſe can be paſſed without a ſuſpending clauſe, we are determined to bear our diſtreſſes as well as we are able; except your Excellency will be pleaſed, conſidering the preſſing neceſſities we lay under, to paſs a bill without ſuch an unuſual clauſe.

Your Excellency's care to ſettle the boundaries between this colony and Quebec, will probably prevent many miſchievous conſequences which might otherwiſe ariſe from the neglect of a thing of that importance. And for the like reaſons we ſhall be ready to contribute all the aſſiſtance in our power, to enable your Excellency to ſettle at leaſt a temporary line of juriſdiction between this colony and the province of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay.

The ſettlement of the boundaries of the ſeveral counties in this colony, where they are in any manner uncertain, we look upon as an object deſerving the moſt ſerious attention of the legiſlature, and abſolutely neceſſary to peace, order, and the due execution of the powers of government. We ſhall pay a due regard therefore to what your Excellency recommends on that ſubject, as well as to whatever elſe you ſhall think proper to lay before us during the courſe of this ſeſſion, in which we ſhall be ambitious of demonſtrating that your Excellency has done us no more than ſtrict juſtice, in ſuppoſing that we will chearfully co-operate with you in whatever can be propoſed for his Majeſty's ſervice, and the good of this country.

By order of the General Aſſembly,
W. NICOLL, Speaker.

Aſſembly-Chamber, in the Out-Ward of the city of New-York, the 13th of November, 1766.

To his Excellency Sir HENRY MOORE, Baronet, Captain General and Governor in chief in and over the province of New-York, and the territories depending thereon in America, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the ſame,

The humble ADDRESS of the council of the province of New-York.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful ſubjects, the council of this province, return your Excellency our hearty thanks for your ſpeech, at the opening of this ſeſſion; and for the communication of his Majeſty's gracious intentions towards the people of this colony, in altering the inſtruction relative to the emiſſion of a paper currency.

Senſible of the great importance of having the limits of the province well eſtabliſhed, we have great ſatisfaction in the early meaſures that your Excellency has taken to aſcertain the line, which his Majeſty has been pleaſed, by his royal proclamation, to fix as the boundary between this colony and Quebec; and hope your Excellency's recommendation to provide for the further opening and continuing that line, will have the deſired effect.

We are alſo ſenſible of the neceſſity of a ſettlement of the boundaries between ſome of the counties; the want of which hath already given riſe to litigation and diſorder, which muſt continue till proper meaſures are taken to adjuſt the ſame.

We beg leave to aſſure your Excellency, that we ſhall be ready on all occaſions to aſſiſt in every meaſure that may be conducive to his Majeſty's ſervice, and the good of this colony.

By order of the Council,
DANIEL HORSMANDEN, Speaker.

Council-Chamber, New-York,

LONDON, September 25.

Extract of a letter from Conſtantinople, Auguſt 16.

"The earthquake which was felt here the 5th of this month, was much more violent along the Propontida, and in the interior country. According to the accounts of travellers, Selivrea, Rodoſto, Gallipoli, and all the intermediate towns and villages, are in the moſt deplorable condition; all the ſtone edifices, and even the public ovens, are thrown down or extremely damaged. And we have advice from Adrianople, that the ſame ſhock threw down there ſeven minarets, and deſtroyed ſeveral moſques, and that the walls of the city, as well as a great number of public baths, have greatly ſuffered. At the departure of the courier, the conſternation was general, and none of the people thought it ſafe to ſtay in their houſes. We are likewiſe aſſured, that the town of Brouſſa, in Bithynia, has ſuſtained conſiderable damage, and that the ſhock was felt as far as Aidrian."

Extract of a letter from Hanover, Sept. 16.

"We have advice from London, that the Princeſs Carolina Matilda, betrothed to the King of Denmark, will ſet out on the 2d or 3d of October for Copenhagen. Her Royal Highneſs will paſs through ſome part of the United provinces, Weſtphalia, and this Electorate, to Harbourg, where ſhe will embark on the Elbe; and we hear from Altena, that great preparations are making there for her reception. Two coaches belonging to the Court, deſtined for the ſervice of this princeſs, will take to-morrow the rout of Holland, with ſeveral footmen and other domeſticks; and in a few days a Chamberlain and a gentleman of the Chamber will ſet out for Wildeſhauſen, in order to receive her Royal Highneſs there, and conduct her to Harbourg.

"A magnificent entertainment is preparing, which is to be given by his Excellency Count de Bothmar, on Wedneſday next, to the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, &c. on account of the marriage, proxy, of her Royal Highneſs Princeſs Carolina, to his Daniſh Majeſty."

A letter from Rome, dated Sept. 1, ſays,

"The ſcarcity of corn in this ſtate is ſo great, that if we are not ſupplied within a month from our neighbours, one half muſt die for want. Many of the villages in the Sabine country live on fruit, nuts, &c. having already conſumed all their corn, and others muſt daily follow their example. Four ſacks of corn, which the Duke de L------ had bought and paid for the uſe of his own family, was ſeized by the Pope's commiſſaries, and ſent to Rome. They continue to ſeize the ſurplus wherever they find it, after allowing a certain quantity, according to the conſumption of the family, but have no regard to others that have leſs than the neceſſary, and many that have none at all, who as they can now no longer be ſupplied from their neighbours, muſt die for want."

Sept. 26. Yeſterday at a General Court of Directors, &c. of the Eaſt-India Company, at Merchant Taylors Hall, a great number of the proprietors were preſent; when the queſtion was put, whether, after the great ſucceſſes the company have had, the dividend on the capital ſtock of the company for the half year, commencing at Chriſtmas next, and ending at Midſummer, be five per cent? And after ſome debates, the queſtion was put, whether it ſhould be determined by ballot, which being unanimouſly agreed to, the ballot was appointed to begin to-morrow morning, at the above place.

It is ſaid the reſolution of a great company, whether their ſervants abroad could or could not accept of, and receive gratuities and preſents, will determine 30,000l. loſs or gain to one ſingle gentleman, lately concerned in the ſervice.

Sept. 27. Yeſterday evening, at 8 o'clock, the ballot of Eaſt-India Proprietors, at Merchant Taylors Hall, was determined in favour of the queſtion for an increaſe of the dividend to ten per cent. by a majority of near three to two, 340 being for the queſtion, and 231 againſt it.

Extract of a letter from an Engliſh gentleman at Paris, to his friend in London.

"I find this court is very intent on putting two plans into execution, calculated for depopulating and ſtarving the induſtrious poor of Great-Britain, on the one hand, and on the other, for making a plentiful proviſion for, and multiplying the inhabitants of this already populous country: To effect both which at once, it has been reſolved, to grant the vaſt foreſts and waſtes in this kingdom to ſuch foreigners as ſhall chuſe to cultivate them; and, at the ſame time to buy up corn enough in Great-Britain for their ſupport, which, they imagine, will create ſuch a dearth there as muſt force the inhabitants to leave it; in conſequence of which, they think numbers of them will chuſe to follow their native food to France, rather than take a long hazardous voyage to cultivate the inhoſpitable wilds of North-America, where (it is ſaid) they would be in a perpetual danger (eſpecially in the time of war) of being ſcalped and maſſacred by the ſavages: Beſides, in France they will be almoſt at home, and in the way of frequently hearing from and ſeeing their countrymen, friends and relations. But as preventing the exportation of corn will be a great means of ruining this politic ſcheme, I hope the preſent patriot Miniſtry will take the moſt ſpeedy and effectual means for that purpoſe."

Extract of a letter from Oxford, dated Thurſday night, Sept. 25.

"On Wedneſday a great number of rioters aſſembled in this city in a very tumultuous manner, and proceeded to Holywell-mill, where they found a large quantity of flour intended for exportation; which they immediately brought away, and divided among themſelves; after deſtroying a great part of the mill, they proceeded to the houſes of ſome principal farmers, and by force carried away the corn to the market place, where they ſold it for five ſhillings per puſhel, and continued rioting the whole night; in the morning they viſited the butter-market, inſiſting on its being ſold for ſix-pence per pound; then went round to the huckſters, inſiſting on their ſelling bacon at ſix-pence per pound, and Glouceſter cheeſe at three-pence per pound, or a guinea per hundred weight, &c. This ſatisfied them for a little time, but they are met again more numerous than before, at the other mills in this neighbourhood, as well as at the ſtores of ſome of our principal farmers. We are in the utmoſt conſternation, not knowing where the matter will end, as it becomes very ſerious."

Thurſday three carts with hampers full of live hares, patridges, geeſe, ducks, pidgeous, &c. were brought to Somerſet-houſe; from whence they were to be forwarded to the yachts lying to receive the Princeſs Carolina Matilda.

St. JOHN's (in Antigua) November 5.

We have accounts that a brig, from Boſton, loaded with fiſh, bound to St. Lucia, was ſeen in lat. 27 o N. and lon. 53 o W. with her maſts gone, her boat and every thing on deck loſt.

By a letter from England of undoubted credit, we have the pleaſure to aſſure the public, that his Majeſty, out of the great regard and high eſteem he held for the ſervices of our late worthy Commander in Chief, George Thomas, Eſq; had created him a Baronet of Great-Britain; and that afterwards Sir George Thomas had wrote a letter to the Right Hon. the Earl of Shelburne, Secretary of State, ſignifying his reſignation of the command of the Leeward Iſlands.

BOSTON, November 3.

Wedneſday laſt the great and general court met here, when his Excellency the Governor was pleaſed to make the following SPEECH to both houſes, viz.

Gentlemen of the council, and
Gentlemen of the houſe of repreſentatives,

I HAVE thought proper to call you together, that you may have an opportunity to give a poſitive anſwer to what I recommended to you, by order of his Majeſty, laſt ſeſſion; as it will be expected of me that it be reported to his Majeſty before the opening of the buſineſs of the next year: And I heartily wiſh that it may be ſuch as will anſwer the expectations and deſires of your friends in Great-Britain. For my own part, I ſhall, upon this occaſion, as upon all others, make the beſt uſe of the means you ſhall put in my hands to promote the honour and reputation of the province.

As you are called together for this buſineſs only, when it is finiſhed, I ſhall have no objection to your returning home, until the uſual time of opening the winter ſeſſion.

Council Chamber, October 29, 1766. FRANCIS BERNARD.

November 17.

The following is an ANSWER of the honourable houſe of repreſentatives to the above SPEECH of his Excellency the Governor, made at the opening of the preſent ſeſſion.

May it pleaſe your EXCELLENCY,

YOUR ſpeech to both houſes at the opening of the preſent ſeſſion, has been repeatedly under the moſt deliberate conſideration of the houſe of repreſentatives.

It was indeed, Sir, with great reluctance, that the houſe found themſelves under the neceſſity of having recourſe to your former ſpeech and meſſage upon this occaſion; but as you are pleaſed to refer us to them, without ſaying any thing to qualify them, the houſe cannot help obſerving, that the manner in which your Excellency has repeatedly propoſed a compenſation to the ſufferers, has been derogatory to the honour of the houſe, and in breach of the privileges thereof: That the terms you have made uſe of, have been eſſentially different from thoſe, dictated to you, by his Majeſty's expreſs command, ſignified in a letter from his ſecretary of ſtate: That they tended to weaken the inherent uncontroulable right of the people, to diſpoſe of their own money to ſuch purpoſes as they ſhall judge expedient, and to no other: And that under theſe apprehenſions, it is not improbable, ſome of the towns may have framed their inſtructions to their repreſentatives, againſt a compenſation out of the public treaſury.

The houſe, however, with the moſt dutiful and profound reſpect, have attended to his Majeſty's moſt gracious and mild recommendation; and obſerve, that it is his pious and benevolent intention, that not only a compenſation ſhould be made to the ſufferers in the late times, but alſo that a veil be drawn over every diſgraceful ſcene, and to forgive, and even to forget the undutiful behaviour of any of his ſubjects in thoſe unhappy times.

Confirmed in the opinion, that an indemnification of the offenders is of equal importance and neceſſity with the making compenſation to the ſufferers, and being ever ready with the utmoſt chearfulneſs to unite their endeavours in promoting the wiſe and gracious purpoſes of their rightful ſovereign; in conformity to the ſpirit of Mr. Secretary Conway's letter, the houſe have framed a bill, entituled, "An act for granting compenſation to the ſufferers, and of free and general pardon, indemnity and oblivion to the offenders in the late times."

This bill they have ordered to be publiſhed for the conſideration of the ſeveral towns, and humbly pray your Excellency would pleaſe to give them a receſs for that purpoſe."

On Thurſday laſt his Excellency was pleaſed to adjourn the great and general court to Wedneſday, the 3d day of December next; having firſt made the following Reply to the above Anſwer to his Speech at the opening of the ſeſſion, viz.

Gentlemen of the houſe of repreſentatives,

IN the letter of the Earl of Shelburne, which I laid before you, you have a ſecond teſtimony from another of his Majeſty's ſecretaries of ſtate, of the tenderneſs and affection towards the people under my government, with which I have conducted myſelf during the late diſputes, and therefore I ſhall make no other anſwer to the ungenerous inſinuations in your meſſage of yeſterday, than by referring to your own journals, from whence it will evidently appear, that it is from among yourſelves, and not from me, that the difficulties which have prevented your making a compenſation to the ſufferers, have aroſe.

I am very ſorry that you have not already complied with what has been recommended to you; but it is ſome ſatisfaction to me, that you have laid a foundation for compleating this buſineſs, which I hope will not fail of ſucceſs. The importance of the affair, and the haſty approach of the new year, will not allow the loſs of a day which can be ſaved; and therefore I ſhall make the receſs, which you deſire, as ſhort as poſſible. And that you may do the buſineſs with as much credit to yourſelves as may be, I ſhall continue the ſeſſion until you can come to a final determination.

Council Chamber, Nov. 13, 1766. FRANCIS BERNARD.

In Council, November 13, 1766.

ON a motion made to his Excellency in council, and the unanimous deſire of the council thereupon, That he would permit the Earl of Shelburne's letter of the 13th of September laſt (a copy of which had been communicated to the board) to be printed;

The governor gave orders for printing the ſame accordingly. The ſaid Letter is as follows, viz.

Sir, Whitehall, September 13, 1766.

I HAVE had the honour to lay before the King, your letters of the 29th of June, and 19th of July laſt, together with the incloſures therein contained: And I have received his Majeſty's commands to communicate them to ſuch of his ſervants, as he thinks proper uſually to conſult upon his moſt important affairs, as ſoon as the ſeaſon of the year will conveniently admit of their meeting, for this, and other purpoſes.---In the mean time, his Majeſty is extremely ſorry, to obſerve any degree of ill temper remaining in his colony of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, or, that points ſhould be ſo improperly agitated, as to tend to the revival of diſputes, which every friend to America muſt wiſh to be forgotten.---They have ſeen the parliament of Great-Britain give due attention to all well founded complaints of the provinces, notwithſtanding they appeared to them, in ſome parts, not ſo properly urged; and tho' the legiſlature will, certainly, on all juſt occaſions, exerciſe and enforce its legiſlative power over the colonies, yet it cannot be doubted, but it will exert it with a due regard to the nature of their connection with the mother country.

Upon this occaſion it is proper to obſerve, in general, that the eaſe and honour of his Majeſty's government in America, will greatly depend on the temper and wiſdom of thoſe who are entruſted with the adminiſtration there; and that they ought to be perſons diſdaining narrow views, private combination, and partial attachments.---It is with great pleaſure, ſir, that I have obſerved the manner in which you have conducted yourſelf, during the diſputes of the laſt year, which I cannot do, without highly approving your attention and watchfulneſs, on the one hand, to ſupport the authority of government, and on the other, the tenderneſs and affection which appeared in all your letters, towards the people under your government.---A temperate conduct, founded on the true baſis of public good, avoiding all unneceſſary reſerve, where nothing arbitrary is thought of, and nothing unreaſonable is required, muſt carry conviction to the hearts of the deluded, conciliate the minds of all, and inſure the confidence of his Majeſty's loyal and loving ſubjects of America.

Upon theſe conſiderations I am perſuaded, that the aſſembly will, immediately upon their meeting, fall upon meaſures to terminate all local difficulties, which appear, by your accounts, to have hitherto prevented that compliance, which will be expected by parliament, with the recommendation you have been required to make, in conſequence of the reſolutions of both houſes.---It is impoſſible to conceive, that they will ſuffer any private conſiderations to interfere with their deſire of ſhewing a proper ſenſe of that paternal regard which they have experienced from his Majeſty, and of that attention which the parliament has given to their complaints, which can never be done with more propriety, than by granting, with the utmoſt chearfulneſs, a juſt compenſation to thoſe who have ſuffered by the late diſorders.

I am, with great truth and regard,
Sir, your moſt obedient,
humble ſervant,
SHELBURNE."

It is ſaid, that at the next Meeting of a very reſpectable Aſſembly, a Motion will be made, to deſire a certain great Man to lay his Letters and Incloſures before them, as a neceſſary Expedient to remove the Jealouſies, and ſatisfy the Minds of many of His Majeſty's good Subjects of this Province.

November 24. Laſt Monday we had a very ſevere Storm of Snow, which continued the whole Day; and has rendered the Travelling ſo bad, that the Southern Poſt did not get in till Yeſterday Afternoon.

We hear that in the above Storm Captain Ripley in a Sloop from the Eaſtward, belonging to, and bound for Duxbury, laden with Lumber, was drove aſhore near Plymouth, without Maſt or Rudder: The next Day, when the Storm was over, ſome People went on board, and found one of her Hands dead in the Steerage, with a Rope about his Body, and the End made faſt to Part of the Veſſel; the Captain and another Man being miſſing, being all that belonged to her, are ſuppoſed to be drowned.

Laſt Night a Veſſel arrived here from Maryland, the People inform, that as they paſſed Cape Cod they ſaw ſix Veſſels aſhore there, but know not who they were.

Extract of a Letter from London, September 14, 1766.

"In my laſt I informed you that the Nation, in general, ſeemed greatly diſpleaſed with Mr. PITT (now Earl of Chatham) for accepting a Peerage, and I am ſorry now to add that Lord T----- was among the moſt virulent of his Enemies, in traducing and vilifying his Character---But now the people diſcover the Deception, and at the next Election we ſhall ſee another Inſtance of true Patriotiſm, and the Eaſt India Company are not without their Fears, that they ſhall feel the Effects."

It is with pleaſure we can inform the public, that the account circulated of a veſſel's foundering in going into Marblehead, and of which mention was made in our laſt, proves premature in part; for inſtead of foundering, the veſſel drove on ſhore, which happily afforded the men an opportunity of preſerving their lives.

The following Bill, now pending in the Houſe of Repreſentatives, has been publiſhed by their Order, for the Conſideration of the ſeveral Towns in this Province, viz.

A BILL, intituled, An ACT for granting Compenſation to the Sufferers, and of free and general Pardon, Indemnity and Oblivion to the Offenders in the late Times.

WHEREAS the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, taking into his gracious and ſerious Conſideration the Troubles, Diſcords, Inſurrections, Tumults and Riots, which have lately happened in America, and that divers of his Subjects have thereby greatly ſuffered in their Property, and others by occaſion thereof; and otherwiſe have fallen into, and are obnoxious to great Pains and Penalties: Out of a hearty and pious Deſire that ſuch Sufferers be compenſated, and to put an End to all Suits, Controverſies and Proſecutions, that by occaſion of the late Diſtractions have ariſen, or may ariſe between any of his Majeſty's Subjects; and to the Intent that a Veil be drawn over the late unhappy Exceſſes, has been pleaſed graciouſly to ſignify his Deſire to forgive and forget them; at the ſame Time, of his abundant Clemency, recommending a Compenſation to the Sufferers in their Property, with ſuch a Conduct in general as ſhall be, at this great Criſis, the beſt Means of fixing the mutual Intereſt and Inclination of Great-Britain and her Colonies, on the moſt firm and ſolid Foundation.

From a grateful Senſe of his Majeſty's Grace and Clemency; in order to promote internal Peace and Safety; to make Compenſation to ſaid Sufferers, and as a Means, as far as is in our Power, of demonſtrating to all the World our Senſe of the Happineſs we enjoy in being Part of the Britiſh Empire, and intitled to the Rights, Liberties and Privileges of Britiſh Subjects: We his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives of the Commons of this Province, in the Great and General Court aſſembled, of our free and good Will have reſolved to give and grant, and pray that it be enacted:

And be it accordingly enacted by the Governor, Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives, that there be granted and paid out of the public Treaſury of this Province to the Hon. Thomas Hutchinſon, Eſq; the Sum of £3194 17s. 6d.

To the Hon. Andrew Oliver, Eſq; the Sum of £172 4s.

To Benjamin Hallowell, jun. Eſq; the Sum of £385 6s. 10d.

To William Story, Eſq; the Sum of £67 8s. 10d. in full Compenſation for their Loſſes and Sufferings in the late Times of Confuſion.

And be it further enacted, That all Riots, Routs and unlawful Aſſemblies, counſelled, commanded, acted, done or made within this Province, between the Firſt Day of Auguſt, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-five, and the Firſt Day of May, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-ſix; and all Burglaries, Felonies, and Breaches of the Peace whatſoever, committed in, by, or during ſuch Riots, Routs, and unlawful Aſſemblies be, and hereby are pardoned, releaſed, indemnified, diſcharged and put in utter Oblivion; and that all and every the Perſon or Perſons acting, adviſing, aſſiſting, abetting and counſelling the ſame, be, and are hereby pardoned, releaſed, acquitted, indemnified, and diſcharged from the ſame; and of and from all Pains of Death, and other Pains, Judgments, Indictments, Convictions, Penalties and Forfeitures therefor, had or given, or that might accrue for the ſame; and that all ſuch Indictments, Convictions and Forfeitures, are hereby declared null and void.

And be it further enacted, That any Perſon indicted or preſented, or in any Manner proſecuted, or that ſhall or may be hereafter indicted, preſented, or in any Manner proſecuted, for any of the Offences by this Act pardoned, may plead the general Iſſue, and give this Act in Evidence, which ſhall be ſufficient to acquit him.

Provided, That nothing in this Act contained, ſhall extend to the pardoning, or give any Benefit whatever to any Perſon who is, or may be unlawfully poſſeſſed of any Goods or Chattels taken or ſtolen from any Perſon, unleſs the Poſſeſſor ſhall, within Thirty Days after the Publication of this Act, have ſurrendered and delivered them up to the Owner.

Provided alſo, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend to the barring any civil Action of Treſpaſs for Damages ſuſtained by any Perſon, not compenſated by this Act.

NEWPORT, November 24.

Laſt Thurſday, the Sloop Diamond, Capt. Samuel Sweet, arrived here in 24 days from Montô Chriſto. He informs, that the day he ſailed ſeveral Engliſh maſters of veſſels, among whom were the Captains Caleb Gardner, and James Rodman, of this place, were apprehended and committed to goal, for trading with ſome French veſſels at the Mount. Capt. Sweet is not certain where the other Captains, who were taken up, belong, but conjectures ſome of them were from Boſton.

NEW-YORK, November 27.

Extract from the JOURNAL of the General Aſſembly of the Colony of New-York.

Die Martis 9 ho. A. M. the 18*th November,* 1766.

A Meſſage from his Excellency the Governor, by Mr. Banyar, Dep. Secry. which being read, is in the Words following, viz.

Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

IN Conſequence of a Report made to the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, of the Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Aſſembly, for providing Barracks, Fuel, &c. for His Majeſty's Troops quartered in this City, and my Letter to the Secretary of State on the ſame Occaſion, I have had the Honour of the following Letter from the Earl of Shelburne.

SIR, WHITE-HALL, 9th Auguſt, 1766.

I TOOK the firſt opportunity, after His Majeſty had been moſt graciouſly pleaſed to intruſt me with the Seals of the Southern Department, to lay before him your Letter of the 20th June, giving an Account of the general Satisfaction expreſſed by all Ranks and Degrees of People on the Repeal of the Stamp-Act; and likewiſe your Reaſons for aſſenting to a Bill for providing Barracks, Firewood, Candles, Bedding, and Utenſils for the Kitchen, for the King's Troops, as demanded, notwithſtanding the Articles of Salt, Vinegar, Cyder, and Beer, be not included, under a Pretence that they are not provided for Troops lodged in Barracks in Europe.

I have His Majesty's Commands to acquaint you, of the Satisfaction he feels in the Happiness of His Subjects, arising from the tender Care and Consideration of His Parliament: But I am ordered to signify to you at the same Time, That as it is the indispensable Duty of His Subjects in America, to obey the Acts of the Legislature of Great-Britain, the King both expects and requires a due and chearful Obedience to the same; and it cannot be doubted that His Majesty's Province of New-York, after the Lenity of Great-Britain so recently extended to America, will not fail duly to carry into Execution the Act of Parliament passed last Session for quartering His Majesty's Troops, in the full Extent and Meaning of the Act, without referring to the Usage of other Parts of His Majesty's Dominions, where the Legislature has thought fit to prescribe different Regulations; and which cannot be altered any more than in North-America, except upon a respectful and well-grounded Representation of the Hardship or Inconvenience. These Considerations, I am convinced, must of themselves have so much Weight with the Assembly of New-York, not only in the present Conjuncture, when it is natural to suppose the Minds of Men retain sensible Impressions of what has lately passed, but upon other Occasions which may call for a ready Obedience, that I cannot think it necessary for me to enlarge farther upon their Importance. I must only, Sir, in general add, that I hope and believe, that a very little Time, together with that temperate Administration of Government, which your Regard to the People under it must make you naturally incline to, and that Firmness which your Duty to the King equally requires, will allay whatever remains of those Heats which have so unhappily for America prevailed, and which if continued must prove of the most fatal Consequence to whatever Province they are suffered in. I am therefore persuaded that the Assembly will lose no Occasion that offers, of convincing His Majesty, that the People of New-York, will yield to no other Part of His Subjects in Duty, Loyalty, and Obedience to such Laws as the King and Parliament have thought proper to enact for their Benefit and Protection.

Signed, SHELBURNE.

I flatter myself, that on due Consideration of this Letter, no Difficulties can possibly arise, or the least Objection be made to the Provision for the Troops, as required by the Act of Parliament.

Fort-George, 17th Nov, 1766. H. MOORE.

Ordered,

That the said Message be referred to the Consideration of the Committee, to whom his Excellency's Speech is committed.

December 1. Capt. Hamilton, in 8 Weeks from Londonderry, the 15th ult. spoke with a Brig from Sligo, bound for Philadelphia, 15 Days out, and all well on board.

The 25th ult. arrived here the Ship Amity's Adventure, Capt. Robert Jermyn, in 8 Weeks from Plymouth, to load Corn for the Mediterranean. He met with excessive bad Weather on this Coast, having lost his Main and Fore-Yard, and split most of his Sails: He spoke with the following Vessels on his Passage, viz. in Lat. 26, 20, Lon. 46, 50, with a Schooner from Maryland for Barbados; Lat. 29, 50, Lon. 66, with a Sloop from this Port, 5 Days out, and bound for Coracoa; and in Lat. 36, 20, Cape Henry Distance 60 Leagues, with two Brigs from Virginia bound for Barbados.

Capt. Darcie, in 27 Days from Pensacola, informs us, that on the 27th of September last they had a very violent Gale of Wind at that Place; in which many Vessels were drove ashore, and some lost; the Wind began at Noon, and continued with great Violence the whole Night; in which Time the following were drove ashore, viz. Capt. Craig, in a Brig belonging to South-Carolina; a Schooner belonging to Pensacola; and a Brig from the Bay, but was owned at Jamaica; also a Sloop belonging to Pensacola; the two latter were intirely lost, but the two former would be got off.

The Sloop Rachel, Capt. Taylor, of Philadelphia, sailed from Mobile for this Port, the 8th of August; but before they got out to Sea, found their Crew so sickly they were obliged to return up to the Town again; and could not get a fresh Supply of healthy Hands for 5 Weeks after, when they sailed again, but having the Misfortune to meet with terrible Currents, fell to Leeward of Cape Carants, and not being able to beat up again, for Want of Provisions, arrived at Pensacola, the 22d of September, and was drove ashore in the abovementioned Gale of Wind, but was got off again without much Damage.

The 8th of November, in Lat. 28, 40, on Soundings, off East-Florida, Capt. Darcie spoke with Captain Hindman, in a Sloop belonging to New-London, from the Bay, 50 Days out, and in a very distressed Condition, having lost his Boltsprit, had his Gunwale stove in, and was otherwise much damaged; and intended to proceed for South Carolina.

Capt. Harris, in 10 Days from Augustine says, that when he left that Place it was very healthy; and that a Schooner and 2 Sloops were lately cast away on that Coast; the former of which belonged to London, and the two latter to the West-Indies.

Capt. M'Alley, in 28 Days from Antigua, the 4th ult. spoke with a Sloop from Philadelphia for the West-Indies; but as it blew hard at the Time, he could not learn the Captain's Name.

PHILADELPHIA, December 4.

On Monday last the Honourable JOHN PENN, Esq; attended by his COUNCIL, the MAYOR, RECORDER, and COMMONALTY of this City, and preceded by the SHERIFF and his Officers, went in Procession to the Court-House, where a new Commission, prolonging the Time for his Government of the Province of Pennsylvania, and the Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex, on Delaware, was read in the Presence of a Concourse of People.

The same Commission was also published at New-Castle on Wednesday, the 26th of last Month.

By Captain Newton, from New-Providence, we learn, that about the First of November, his Majesty's Sloop of War, the Escorte, Captain Folie, in going into the Harbour, there being a great Swell, was driven on the Bar, where she beat off her Rudder, and, it was thought, received considerable Damage in her Bottom; that a Number of People from the Shore went immediately to her Assistance, when she was got off, and carried in, but so very leaky they could scarce keep her free with both Pumps till they had taken out her Guns, Stores, &c. in order to heave her down, and that they were obliged to keep one Pump constantly going after she was lightened.----He also informs, that a Schooner, Captain Theobalds, from this Place, arrived there on the 2d ult. in a shattered Condition, having sprung his Boom, and split his Sails all to Pieces, in a Gale of Wind; but that he had almost repaired his Damage when Captain Newton sailed, and was to proceed, in three or four Days, on his Voyage to Pensacola: That Captain M'Clean was near ready to sail for this Port; and that Captain Stewart, from Philadelphia, arrived there, and had sailed for Pensacola a Day or two before he left Providence.

Captain Thornton, from London, on the 13th of October, in Lat. 41:47, Long. 13:56, spoke the Schooner Fox, Captain Murphy, from Piscataqua for St. Andera, who, three Days before, took the Crew out of a French Ship, loaded with Wine and Brandy, that had foundered in a Gale of Wind; when he took them on board, the Ship lay on her Broadside, full of Water, so that they could not save any thing belonging to her.

On Wednesday Night (the 26th ult.) a Fire broke out on board the Ship Hugh and James, Captain M'Carty, then lying at Anchor in our Harbour, outward bound; it is thought it was occasioned by the Carelessness of a Boy, who had left a Candle burning in the Lazaretto; the Fire was got to such a Heighth in the Hold before it was discovered, that notwithstanding the immediate Assistance from the Shore, she was intirely burnt down to the Water's Edge, after being towed to the Sand Bar, opposite the City.

Captain Moon, from North-Carolina, advises, that just before he sailed, he was informed by Mr. Clarke, one of the Pilots there, that a small new Schooner, from this Port for Ocracock, having lost both her Masts in a Gale of Wind, was driven on Cape Hatteras, but it was thought she would be got off again.---He also heard that a French Ship, from the Bite of Leoganne for Old France, had put into Cape Look-out Bay, in Distress.

Captain Greenway, from Barbados, about 22 Days ago, off the Dog and Prickly Pear, spoke a Sloop, Captain Arthur Burrows, from this Port, who had sprung the Head of his Mast, otherwise all well.

The Ship White Oak, Captain Burrows, from this Port, is arrived at Barbados.

Arrived at Antigua. Captain Thornton, from Casco Bay; M'Caven, from Boston; Hitch, from Maryland; and Captain Macky, from New-York.

 Any Gentleman going down to Nanticoke or Wicomoco, Maryland, may hear of a Companion, by applying to the Printers.

To the PUBLIC,

WHEREAS John Dorsey, of Philadelphia, having erected an Air Furnace at Mount-holly, in New-Jersey, for the Purpose of running Iron Ore into Pig-metal, or Castings, and having found, from an Experiment of the same, that the Ore will flux in the said Furnace, and that Bar-iron may be made from it, as evidently appeared upon Trial; but the Furnace not being built on such a Construction as to answer the Purpose effectually, the Defect of which is supposed to be owing to its Smallness, and want of Strength; and as it would be an Hardship on a few Individuals, to bear the whole Expence of an Experiment which, if brought to Perfection, will be of such general Advantage; therefore this Method is taken, to advertize those that are willing to promote so useful an Undertaking by contributing to the Expence thereof, that on paying to Abraham Mitchell, of Philadelphia, Peter Bard, of Mountholly, Daniel Ellis, of Burlington, or Doctor Denormandy, of Bristol, such Sums of Money as they think fit, the same shall be faithfully applied to the perfecting the said Furnace; and if a sufficient Sum is collected, it is intended to be forwarded in the Spring, or as soon as the Season will admit, or the Money returned if the Furnace is not built. The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

By the Ship ELISABETH, Captain FALKNER, from London, we have the following Advices, viz.

At the Court at St. James's, September 26, 1766, Preſent,
The KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY in Council.

WHEREAS his Majeſty has been informed, by addreſſes from the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of London, the Cities of Briſtol and Norwich, and other conſiderable Corporations and numerous bodies of men, that the price of wheat has gradually increaſed ever ſince the ports were opened, by the expiration of the act of the laſt ſeſſion of parliament, prohibiting the exportation of corn, and that at Bear-key it is above the bounty-price, and in moſt other places in the kingdom greatly exceeding the ſame, and it is upon the ſtrongeſt ground to be preſumed to be ſtill riſing; that the ſtock in hand is very inconſiderable, and that the crop of the preſent year has failed in ſuch a proportion, that if the exportation be not immediately ſtopped, there is great cauſe to foreſee, that very ſhortly there will not remain in the kingdom a quantity ſufficient for the neceſſary ſupply of his Majeſty's ſubjects; and whereas this apprehenſion is much increaſed, from the undoubted informations his Majeſty has received, that, from the failure of, and deficiencies in the crops in ſeveral foreign parts, commiſſions have been received from thence to purchaſe wheat to ſupply ſuch foreign markets, at an unlimited price, and which commiſſions are, at this time, larger and more extenſive than have been known at any time; ſo that unleſs his Majeſty ſhould, upon this emergency, exert his royal authority to prevent the further exportation of wheat and wheat-flour, his Majeſty's ſubjects would be in danger of want, whilſt foreigners are ſupplied from this country. And whereas the parliament ſtanding prorogued to the 11th day of November next, his Majeſty has not an opportunity of taking the advice of his parliament ſpeedily enough, upon the preſent emergency, to ſtop the progreſs of a miſchief daily increaſing, and which, if not immediately provided againſt, might be productive of calamities paſt all poſſibility of remedy. It is therefore, upon the grounds of the above urgent neceſſity now impending, and for the ſafety, benefit and ſuſtenance of his Majeſty's ſubjects, that his Majeſty, with the advice of his Privy-Council, doth order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that an embargo be forthwith laid upon all ſhips and veſſels laden, or to be laden, in the ports of Great-Britain, with wheat or wheat flour, to be exported to foreign parts; and that the ſaid embargo do continue and remain, from the date hereof, until the 14th day of November next. And the Right Hon. the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque-ports, are to give the neceſſary directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

W. BLAIR.

At the Court at St. James's, September 26, 1766, Preſent,
The KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY in Council.

WHEREAS his Majeſty hath received information, that the price of wheat has gradually increaſed ever ſince the ports were opened, by the expiration of the act of the laſt ſeſſion of parliament, prohibiting the exportation of corn, and that in the port of London the price of wheat has been, for two ſucceſſive market days, above 48 s. the quarter, Wincheſter meaſure; and it is, upon the ſtrongeſt grounds, to be preſumed to be ſtill riſing. His Majeſty doth therefore, by and with the advice of his Privy Council (purſuant to the powers veſted in his Majeſty for that purpoſe, by an act paſſed in the 33d year of the reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second) hereby prohibit the making, extracting, or diſtilling of any kind of low wines, or ſpirits, from any wheat, wheat-meal, wheat-flour, or wheat-bran, or any mixture therewith, from the date hereof, until the 14th day of November next; whereof all perſons concerned are to take notice, and yield due obedience to his Majeſty's commands hereby ſignified. W. BLAIR.

Stockholm, Sept 2. The Count de Horn ſet out yeſterday for Copenhagen with the character of Ambaſſador Extraordinary from their Majeſties. He is to accompany hither the Princeſs Sophia-Magdelaine of Denmark, and is charged with preſents from her intended ſpouſe, to the amount of upwards of 30,000 ducats. Six gentlemen were of the Embaſſy.

Vienna, Sept. 6. The Emperor ſet out the day before yeſterday, at five in the morning, for the camp in Moravia. His Majeſty, it is ſaid, will deliver there to General Loudon a ſword of gold, richly adorned with brilliants, as a preſent from the Empreſs Queen, and at the ſame time create him Field-Marſhal of the Imperial and Royal armies. There is ſome talk alſo of a numerous military promotion, which will be publiſhed in the army.

Count Daun, General of cavalry, died here laſt night.

Paris, Sept. 12. The Count d'Eſtaing, who ſailed from Cape Francois the 9th of July, arrived here the 9th of this month.

Copenhagen, Sept. 13. The intended Queen's houſhold are preparing to ſet out for Altena to meet her Majeſty; but it is not yet fixed when the King is to ſet out for that purpoſe.

Straſburgh, Sept. 13. According to advices received from Paris, it is no longer a ſecret that the court of France has ſpared no pains to induce Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick to engage in its ſervice, having granted him a penſion of 400,000 livres a year, and appointed him commander in chief over all the King's armies, Field-Marſhall General, and one of the King's Royal palaces for the place of his reſidence during life.

Conſtantinople, Auguſt 16. Ever ſince the three ſhocks of the earth, which happened on the 5th, we have felt every day ſome freſh agitation. A village near Rodoſto has been entirely deſtroyed by the fall of a mountain, at the foot of which it was ſituated.

Several houſes in the ſuburb of St. Demetri are infected with the plague.

Leghorn, Sept. 6. We learn from Corſica, that the Earl of Briſtol's brother was arrived at Baſtia, where he was received and entertained with great politeneſs by the Count de Marbœuf, and had ſince been at Corte, to confer with General Paoli. It is added, that this Chief of the malecontents had declared to the principal people of his party, that the Powers of Europe were inclined to have the whole kingdom of Corſica put under the government of the Genoeſe, and that in conſequence thereof a Miniſter Plenipotentary from France was to go to Genoa, and from thence over to Corſica, with ſome deputies from the republic, in order to bring about an accommodation, and conclude a peace.

Civita Vecchia, Sept. 2. We are in hopes of ſoon receiving 60,000 meaſures of corn from Holland, which will be a very ſeaſonable relief to us. If proper means had been made uſe of laſt year to promote the cultivation and ſowing of the lands, the eccleſiaſtick ſtate would not have been expoſed to the preſent ſcarcity.

Sept. 5. Thirty thouſand roubes of corn have been imported here by ſome Engliſh Merchants, who are to be paid at the rate of nine crowns the roube. By means of this proviſion, we have hopes that the price of bread will fall throughout theſe dominions.

CHARLES-TOWN, in South-Carolina, Nov. 14.

Letters from Penſacola of the 18th paſt adviſe, that a large Spaniſh ſnow, and a large Engliſh ſchooner, had very lately arrived there from the Bay of Campeachy, and landed their cargoes, at noon day, without the ſlighteſt appearance of interruption from the king's ſhips in the harbour. The ſnow had a conſiderable quantity of money on board, but goods for the Spaniſh trade were ſo ſcarce, that it was thought the dollars could not be laid out there, and ſeveral more Spaniſh veſſels were expected.----The war ſtill continues between the Choctaws and Creeks, with various ſucceſs: The Choctaws lately attacked the Cuſſatoes, a party of Creeks, who ſome time ago left their nation, and have ſince remained neuter; in their firſt attempts they were repulſed, but on their return with greater force, the Cuſſatoes quitted their town, and, with their wives and children, have put themſelves under the protection of the Engliſh: It is thought they will be ſettled near Penſacola.

All our accounts from the Creek Country agree, that thoſe Indians continue to behave very inſolently; they lately killed two Britiſh traders, named Goodwin and Davis, and it is reported they have ſince murdered another.

November 18. The northern tribes continue their incurſions againſt the Cherokees, who have ſuffered greatly by fevers; ſeveral towns have loſt from 20 to 40 each, much owing to their manner of treating the ſick, who either on being ſeized, plunge themſelves immediately into a river, or ſend for the phyſician, who repeatedly waſhes the patient with cold water, to abate the febrile heat, blows, ſcratches, cups, &c. till the conſtitution, however ſtrong, is fairly overcome, and death cloſes the ſcene. Among thoſe dead is the faithful Indian, named Chickeſaw, who headed the party of his countrymen, that, by direction of the Hon. John Stuart, Eſq; ſuperintendant, &c. prevented the French and Ilinois Indians from obſtructing the paſſage of Major Farmar, and the 34th regiment, for which very important ſervice he received publicly the ſuperintendant's thanks, in his Majeſty's name, together with ſeveral preſents. The ſickneſs prevailing in that nation has prevented the boundary line, behind North-Carolina, from being run; the Indians having ſolicited Governor Tryon, and the ſuperintendant, that it may be poſtponed till the ſpring.

Nov. 21. Letters from the country of the Creek Indians, inform us, that his Excellency Governor Johnſtone, and the Superintendant's deputy in Weſt-Florida, having ſent a perſon into the Creek nation to demand ſatisfaction for the murder of the two traders mentioned in our laſt, the Creeks ſeized one of the murderers, and put him to death in preſence of the meſſenger, and when the letters came away were in purſuit of another.

B O S T O N, November 28.

Tueſday laſt a large Tranſport Ship put in here, having on board a Detachment of his Majeſty's Royal Train of Artillery, who were bound to Quebec, to relieve thoſe which had been there ſeveral Years; but the above Ship, after making many Attempts to get up the River in vain, was obliged to put in here: We hear alſo that a Number of the ſame Corps, which had been relieved at Halifax, were on board ſaid Ship, intended for England, after they had taken on board thoſe at Quebec.

N E W-H A V E N, November 29.

Mr. Timothy Baldwin, of Amity, a pariſh in New-Haven, departed this life laſt Tueſday. For about a year paſt he was troubled with a ſmall obſtruction in diſcharging his urine, but not ſo as to prevent him doing his common buſineſs. Fourteen days before his death he rode into town about ſeven miles; was inſtantly taken with a violent pain in the lower part of the abdomen, with a ſtrong inclination to diſcharge his urine. He ſuppoſed it to be a cholic; but never diſcharged a drop until the day before his death, only by the uſe of the catheter, and nothing but blood. His bladder was taken out by Dr. Loverett Hubbard, in which he found a wen as large as a gooſe-egg, by the Sphincter Veſicæ or muſcle that goes around its neck, and a putrid ulcer, which contained about ten ounces. The bladder and what it contained weighed four Pounds.

Some letters from Mobille, via Penſacola, inform us, that it has been ſo ſickly in that place, that all the inhabitants have left it, except about a dozen families, and the King's garriſon.

We are credibly informed, that ſeveral debtors lately confined in goal, in this city, are diſcharged by the charitable benevolence of the lady MOORE.---A ſecond inſtance of that lady's good diſpoſition, ſince her arrival here, in the courſe of 12 months; and ſets an example worthy imitation, eſpecially as it has a direct tendency to the preſervation of their poor diſtreſſed wives and children, by letting them have the aſſiſtance of their huſbands labour, for a ſupport the approaching winter.

Dec. 8. On the proper Application (and conformable to Orders) made by Major Thomas James, who ſuſtained a Loſs on the firſt of November, 1765, in this City; his Caſe has been conſidered by the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives, now ſitting; and they have been pleaſed to grant him the Amount of his Account ſworn to, of the Sum of One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Forty-five Pounds, Fifteen Shillings and Two-pence Half-penny, for which that Gentleman gave the Houſe his hearty Thanks, and aſſured he would communicate their Generoſity, by the firſt Opportunity, to his Majeſty's Miniſters of State.

Other Loſſes that happened on the ſame Day and Year, are under Conſideration.

On Tueſday arrived the Brig Elizabeth, Captain Conray, in 8 Weeks from Dublin, but brings no News.---On the 16th, 17th, and 18th of November, had exceeding heavy Gales of Wind. On the 17th, in Lat. 59, 39, ſpoke the Brig Adventure, from Rhode-Iſland to Surrinam, out 5 Days, had loſt great Part of the Stock, and all the Hay off her Deck.

Two Veſſels ſailed for Philadelphia from Dublin, a few Days before Captain Conray; and two Ships were to follow in a Week after, for the ſame Port.

Wedneſday Night, about Nine o'Clock, on board a Sloop from Egg-Harbour, loaded with Shingles, one Davis, Maſter, lying without the Great-Dock, a Fire kindled, it is ſuppoſed under the Hearth, in the Cabbin, burſt out, and was got to a conſiderable Height before diſcovered. It is ſaid moſt of the Things in the Cabbin were deſtroyed, and the Veſſel, with ſeveral others, and their Cargoes, were in great Danger; but by timely Aſſiſtance, and ſcuttling the Veſſel, the Fire was extinguiſhed, after having done, it was ſuppoſed, about 50 l. Damage.

Extract of a Letter from the Grenades, dated October 24, 1766.

"Our Aſſembly are now ſitting, and, amongſt other Laws, have paſſed the following: That all the Flour, Bread, Butter, &c. ſold in this Iſland, is to be ſold hereafter by the Hundred or Pound Weight.----They alſo intend laying a Duty on all Flour, Bread, Beef, Pork, Butter, Cheeſe, &c. imported here; and intend giving a Bounty of 30 Shillings per Head, on all live Cattle brought from the Northward. They alſo intend appointing Inſpectors of Lumber."

This may ſerve to inform the public, eſpecially the traders to North-Carolina, that the Hornet ſloop of war lays in Cape-Look-out Bay, has two tenders; one a Virginia built pilot boat, with two ſwivel guns forward; the other a ſmall ſchooner, with ſix ſwivels, which ſtrictly examine all veſſels they meet with bound to North-Carolina; ſome have been ſeized.

Captain Waldron is arrived at Coracoa from this port, and Captain Jones, from Philadelphia, at the ſame place.

Paragraph of a letter from Quebec, Nov. 8, ſays, "The famous rum duties claimed by the King, as heir at law, and by conqueſt to the French King, was yeſterday, by our new judge, &c. ſpecial jury, given againſt the crown; the King's attorney talks of appealing, but we mean to remonſtrate to his Majeſty againſt the illegality of taxing us againſt our conſent; and plead his own proclamation in our behalf, where he promiſed the Canadians, as well as Engliſh, the ſame rights and privileges as his natural born ſubjects. We do not refuſe the neceſſary aids for the ſupport of government in this province, but claim the right to raiſe them ourſelves, and hope daily to learn this has been granted us, in giving us, as well as the other colonies, an aſſembly, which we have ſome time ſince applied for.

PHILADELPHIA, December 11.

WHEREAS ſundry reputable Merchants, of this City, have iſſued Notes, payable to the Bearer, with Intereſt of Five per Cent. per Annum, for Nine Months, at which Time ſaid Intereſt is to ceaſe, ſome of which Notes they have already paſſed in Lieu of Money. As this Example may be followed by others, and as the Practice has been by Experience found, in other Provinces, to be prejudicial to Trade, and we conceive has a Tendency to depreciate our Paper Money; we therefore do hereby declare we will not take any Notes thus iſſued for any Payment whatever. Witneſs our Hands this Eighth Day of December, 1766.

Extract of a Letter from London, September 30, 1766.

"I happened to be at York during the Races there, where a prodigious Concourſe of Gentry were aſſembled, and where the Marquis of Rockingham was preſented with very warm Addreſſes from moſt of the trading Towns of that extenſive County, highly extolling his late patriotic Adminiſtration, and deeply regretting their being now de- priv'd of his farther Aſſiſtance. And indeed the late Miniſtry ſeem to ſtand very high in the public Eſteem in general. How this will operate next Winter, I will not pretend to ſay.

"At preſent, People ſeem to be ſomewhat tired of the Abuſe that hath, for ſome Time, been thrown out againſt Lord Chatham, and wait with Impatience to ſee what Conduct he adopts at the Opening of the Seſſion; he is now really very ill of the Gout, and is at preſent at Bath, in order to recruit his Health----In the mean while there is nothing but Riots and Inſurrections over the whole Country, on Account of the high Price of Proviſions, in particular Corn. The Privy Council have put a Stop to the Exportation of it in the Interim, but ſome Means muſt be fallen upon to lower the Price of the Neceſſaries of Life in general, or I know not what will become of the labouring Poor.

"Laſt Wedneſday I was preſent at a General Meeting of the Proprietors of the Eaſt-India Company, who, in Conſideration of their late immenſe Acquiſitions in India, inſiſted on an Increaſe of their Dividend from 6 to 10 per Cent. and carried it by Ballot, againſt the unanimous Opinion of the Directors, who deemed it more prudent to wait till Matters were more compoſed in India, and till they are enabled, by Returns from thence, to pay off the large Debts of the Company, which they declared they were at preſent wholly unable to do. The Directors were told (and they did not contradict the Aſſertion) that their yearly Revenue in Bengall was now actually equal to their whole Capital Stock, which is £ 3,200,000, and that therefore it was abſurd to delay making an increaſed Dividend, ſeeing they could borrow, with Eaſe, whatever Sums they might have Occaſion for. They (the Directors) ſeemed fearful, and unwilling to ſpeak out; they only told the Court, that the Duke of Grafton had lately ſent for them, to acquaint them, that their Affairs would probably come before the Parliament early in the Seſſion; and from this Enquiry they ſeemed (though ſome think without Ground) to have ſome Apprehenſions. It is not very eaſy to ſay, however, how this Affair will terminate."

Edinburgh, Auguſt 30.

At the laſt Meeting of the Royal College of Phyſicians, Dr. JOHN MORGAN, Fellow of the Royal Society, and Profeſſor of Medicine at Philadelphia, was admitted a Fellow.

With Capt. Falconer, from London, came Paſſenger HUGH WILLIAMSON, M. D. belonging to this Place.

Philadelphia, December 11, 1766.

WE can with Pleaſure aſſure our Readers, that amongſt the many uſeful public Inſtitutions in this City, the School of Phyſic lately opened is carried on with Spirit, and meets with great Encouragement, from the Number of young Men who come from different Parts of the Continent to finiſh their Studies in it: And that beſides the excellent Courſes of Anatomy and Phyſiology, and of the Theory and Practice of Phyſic, carried on by Doctors SHIPPEN and MORGAN, Doctor BOND is now giving CLINICAL and METEREOLOGICAL LECTURES in the PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL, for the Improvement of the Pupils in the practical Part of their Profeſſions, the Plan and Utility of which may be judged of by the laſt Part of an introductory Oration that Gentleman delivered, the third of this Month, at the Hoſpital, to near Thirty Students, in the Preſence of the ſitting Managers, the Profeſſors of the College, and moſt of the Phyſicians of the Place, in which he endeavoured to ſhew, by ſeveral ſtriking Inſtances, that the Cauſes and Prevention of moſt of the epidemic Fevers of America, were more within the Limits of human Precaution, than had generally been imagined, and warmly recommended the Attempt of the latter; and that as every Climate was productive of peculiar Diſeaſes, no Country could be ſo proper for the Inſtruction of Youth in the Knowledge of Phyſic, as that in which it was to be practiſed, where the Precepts of never-failing Experience might be handed down from Father to Son, from Tutor to Pupil; and concluded with ſaying, "I now inform you, Gentlemen Students, that the Managers and Phyſicians of the Pennſylvania Hoſpital, on ſeeing the great Number of you attending the School of Phyſic in this City, are of Opinion, this excellent Inſtitution affords a favourable Opportunity of farther Improvement to you in the practical Part of your Profeſſions, and being deſirous it ſhould anſwer all the good Purpoſes intended by the generous Contributors to it, have allotted to me the Taſk of giving a Courſe of Clinical and Metereological Obſervations here this Winter, which I chearfully undertake, in Expectation that Remarks on the many curious Caſes which muſt daily occur, amongſt an Hundred and Thirty ſick Perſons collected together at one Time, may be very inſtructive to you, and therefore I intend to meet you here at the ſtated Hours, and give you the beſt Information in my Power of the Nature and Treatment of chronical Diſeaſes, and of the proper Management of Ulcers, Wounds and Fractures; I ſhall ſhew you all the Operations of Surgery, and endeavour, from the Experience of Thirty Years, to introduce you to a familiar Acquaintance with the acute Diſeaſes of your own Country; in order to which, I ſhall put up a compleat Metereological Apparatus, and endeavour to inform you of all the known Properties of the Atmoſphere which ſurrounds us, and the Effects its frequent Variations produce on animal Bodies, and confirm the Doctrine by an exact Regiſter of the Weather, and the prevailing Diſeaſes both here and in the neighbouring Provinces; to which I ſhall add, all the intereſting Obſervations which may occur in private Practice, and moſt ſincerely wiſh it may be in my Power to do them to your Satisfaction. I likewiſe have the Pleaſure to inform you, that Doctor SMITH has promiſed to go through a Courſe of thoſe Parts of experimental Philoſophy in the College, which may inſtruct you in PNEUMATICS, HYDROSTATICS and MECHANICS, which will be of the greateſt Advantage to a ready Comprehenſion of the Metereological Lectures, and other Parts of your medical Studies, and lay you under the higheſt Obligations to that learned Profeſſor.

"'Tis alſo intended ſoon to have a medical Library in this Room, for the Uſe of the Pupils; a valuable Collection of Books will be put into it in a few Days, and a conſiderable Number will be ſent for to England this Fall, out of the Funds appropriated to that Purpoſe, and our kind and indefatigable Managers are in Queſt of another Collection, which they expect ſoon to add to it."

Captain Hood, from Anguilla, on the 28th of October, in Lat. 21: 20, Long. 63: 12, ſpoke a Sloop from Virginia for St. Martins, but could not learn the Maſter's Name.----On the 4th ult. in Lat. 28: 27, Long. 68: 19, ſpoke a Brig, Captain Hamilton, from London for Virginia; and on the 27th, in Lat. 39: 3, Long. 69: 13, he ſpoke a Schooner, Captain Beaty, from Rhode-Iſland for Barbados, all well.

On Sunday Night laſt, about a Quarter after Twelve o'Clock, a Houſe in Church Alley was attempted to be broke open; the Villain had got on the Kitchen, and was lifting up the Saſh of a Window in the Firſt Story, but the Noiſe awakening a Negroe Wench who ſlept in the Room, ſhe got up and held the Saſh down, notwithſtanding which the Fellow ſtill attempted to get in, threatening to cut her Throat, and did not go away till the Neighbourhood was alarmed.

The ſame Night a Store was broke open on Captain Goodman's Wharff, and two Cheeſes, and a ſmall Parcel of Coffee, carried off. The Door was prized open by a Broad-Axe, marked with four O's, which the Thief, or Thieves, left behind; it is now in Poſſeſſion of the Captain, and may be a Means of diſcovering thoſe concerned.

To the P U B L I C,

WHEREAS John Dorsey, of Philadelphia, having erected an Air Furnace at Mount-holly, in New-Jersey, for the Purpose of running Iron Ore into Pig-metal, or Castings, and having found, from an Experiment of the same, that the Ore will flux in the said Furnace, and that Bar-iron may be made from it, as evidently appeared upon Trial; but the Furnace not being built on such a Construction as to answer the Purpose effectually, the Defect of which is supposed to be owing to its Smallness, and want of Strength; and as it would be an Hardship on a few Individuals, to bear the whole Expence of an Experiment which, if brought to Perfection, will be of such general Advantage; therefore this Method is taken, to advertize those that are willing to promote so useful an Undertaking by contributing to the Expence thereof, that on paying to Abraham Mitchell, of Philadelphia, Peter Bard, of Mountholly, Daniel Ellis, of Burlington, or Doctor Denormandy, of Bristol, such Sums of Money as they think fit, the same shall be faithfully applied to the perfecting the said Furnace; and if a sufficient Sum is collected, it is intended to be forwarded in the Spring, or as soon as the Season will admit, or the Money returned if the Furnace is not built. The Sum requisite to build, it is thought, will not exceed One Hundred and fifty Pounds. ¶

NAPLES, Auguſt 29.

A SMALL Tuſcan veſſel ſailed from Leghorn about two years ago, with a very rich cargo, and having never ſince been heard of, it was ſuppoſed ſhe had periſhed; but a perſon is juſt taken up here, who was formerly maſter of a Neapolitan felucca, and who is ſaid to have pillaged and ſunk the above veſſel, after killing all the crew. Preparations are making for his trial, and the proofs that already appear againſt him, leave no room to doubt of his meeting the puniſhment due to his crime.

Peterſburgh, Aug. 22. The Engliſh merchants who reſide here, have ſent a deputation to Aſtracan, to eſtabliſh factories in the ports of the Caſpian ſea.

Paris, September 8. Our ſettlements in the Eaſt Indies are becoming more and more flouriſhing; and the city of Pondicherry will in a few years, if the peace continues, be as conſiderable and as well peopled as it has ever been.

LONDON.

September 18. Several conſiderable perſons of the landed and mercantile intereſt of Scotland, are forming a ſociety for improving the fiſheries on the Eaſt coaſt; and, we are told, one of their principal ſchemes is to be watchful of the Dutch. By the treaties of commerce between the Scots and that Commonwealth, before the Union, and afterwards confirmed by the articles of Union of both nations, the Dutch are allowed to fiſh on the coaſt without ſight of land; but, for many years paſt, on Sundays eſpecially, and other days, one hundred ſail frequently appear on the Great Cod Bank, which begins near Montroſe, and reaches along the Mearns and Buchan coaſt. Off Peterhead the Dutch generally aſſemble their fiſhing ſmacks for their rendezvous, as there the bank for that purpoſe is reckoned the beſt for fiſhing.---As this is a national concern, it is hoped ſuch a ſcheme will be ſupported in its due extent.

An Engliſh Nobleman, a few days ago, being in company with a foreigner of diſtinction, took the opportunity to launch out in praiſe of the number and magnificence of the new buildings carrying on round the metropolis; to which the other replied, "True, my Lord, by the preſent method of building, one would be led to imagine there were no middling ſort of people in the capital."

September 20. By a gentleman who arrived in town laſt night from Frome, we are informed, that the poor manufacturers of that place aſſembled on Thurſday morning, and marched to Trowbridge, in order to pull down the corn-dealers houſes there; but ſome gentlemen interfering, by giving them money, and promiſing them their further aſſiſtance in lowering the prices of proviſions, they turned their courſe to Bradley, near Trowbridge, where they deſtroyed the mill, and divided the corn they found amongſt them; afterwards they went to Beckington near Frome, in order to do the like, but here they were oppoſed with fire-arms by the perſons belonging to the mills, and ſeveral of them were wounded, which ſo exaſperated the reſt, that they immediately made a fire with ſticks, and throwing the firebrands on the mills, which were thatched, ſoon burnt them to the ground; and they threatened, as the gentleman informs us, to deſtroy the mills and mealmens houſes all round the country.

Extract of a Letter from Plymouth, September 16.

"A marine ſoldier was ordered to be ſhot at Plymouth-dock for deſertion, on Monday the 15th inſtant, which was yeſterday. The marine companies, and the 4th regiment, were ordered to attend the execution. About nine in the morning the priſoner was brought out of the barracks, after having received the ſacrament, and eſcorted by an Officer's guard, and the Clergyman; his coffin was carried before his face, which made the proceſſion appear more dreadful and ſolemn. About ten he got to the field of execution; the diſtance he walked is about a quarter of a mile; but as he frequently kneeled and prayed moſt fervently on the way, made him ſo long going. About eleven the commanding Officer ordered he ſhould march round the troops, to admoniſh them, &c. The Clergyman dictated what he ſaid to the ſoldiers; after which he returned to the place. He fell a victim to an over-act of ceremony. There were nine men, who were formerly deſerters, ordered to ſhoot him; he kneeled, and was bid by the Officer to pull his cap over his face, which he did; and whilſt the Officer turned round (I ſuppoſe to pull a reprieve out of his pocket) the poor man dropped a handkerchief out of his hand, which was underſtood by the men that were to ſhoot him as a ſignal to fire; and indeed three of them did fire through his body before the Officer could turn round to ſtop them. Oh! think of this unhappy affair, as the Officer had a reprieve in his pocket, which came expreſs on Saturday night. In ſhort, the Officer was endeavouring to heighten the ſcene of horror as much as poſſible, and then to produce the pardon; but 'tis plain he over-acted his part, and by ſome unaccountable fatality the poor man loſt his life. You may eaſier conceive, than it can be expreſſed, the horrible confuſion of the Officer, who is as innocent as you, as to deſign; but a melancholy abſence happened ſomewhere."

Thurſday a well-dreſſed man was detected at a coffee-houſe in the city, in the act of ſecreting news-papers, which it appeared he had long made a practice of; the company inſiſting on ſearching him, no leſs than five papers of the day were found in his pockets.

Extract of a Letter from Worceſter, September 18.

"We have juſt been informed, that on Tueſday laſt there was an inſurrection of many hundred poor people in the neighbourhood of Glouceſter and Cirenceſter, who have deſtroyed ſeveral mills, and done other great damages among the Millers, Farmers, Cheeſe-factors, &c. and to ſuch an height has their reſentment already riſen, on account of the dearneſs of corn, &c. that, if ſome proper means are not immediately uſed, in order to ſuppreſs theſe tumults, it is to be feared very alarming conſequences will enſue.---'Tis ſaid, that laſt night an expreſs arrived here, to ſolicit the aid of the military forces quartered in this city and neighbourhood, in order that theſe unhappy diſturbances may be timely ſuppreſſed."

Sept. 23. By letters from Saliſbury we are informed, that on Tueſday laſt a number of rioters aſſembled in that neighbourhood, and pulled down Fiſherton mill; after which they came into the market, forced open the farmers ſacks, and ſold all their grain at 5s. 6d. a buſhel; the money for which, together with the ſacks, they returned to the owners. They then viſited the butter-market, and obliged them to ſell their butter at 6d. a pound, taking it away from thoſe who refuſed that price. When this advice was ſent away, they threatened farther miſchief to other mills in and about the city.

The mob, that was ſo eaſily quelled at Glouceſter on Saturday ſe'nnight, have ſince committed great outrages at Stroud, Michinhampton, and that neighbourhood. A number of them beſet the houſe of a villager that ſold huckſtery, &c. and he firing on them, killed one of them on the ſpot: This ſo enraged the reſt, that they pulled the houſe down to the ground. The poor man had the good fortune to eſcape their fury at the back door. We hear that not leſs than 500 of them are aſſembled in this riotous manner at Berkeley, and we have the ſame Account alſo from different parts of Wiltſhire.

Accounts are received, that diſturbances have lately been made by the populace at Whitehaven, on account of the riſe in the price of corn.

Extract of a Letter from Exeter, Sept. 18.

"Tueſday night a mob aſſembled in this city, owing to a report of a quantity of cheeſe being to be ſent by the carrier to Newton-Buſhel, and broke open a warehouſe wherein the cheeſe was depoſited, and ſeized about eleven hundred weight, which they ſold much under value. Four of the rioters were taken up, and yeſterday were committed to Southgate. And yeſterday afternoon, on a rumour that a mob of 6 or 700 were coming in from the country, the militia regiment, now performing their annual exerciſe here, were ordered to arms by beat of drum, which, with other prudential means uſed by the Magiſtrates, happily prevented any farther tumult."

September 26. Letters from Edinburgh, Stirling, Glaſgow, &c. ſay, that the magiſtrates intend to make application to parliament, for an act to reſtrain the exorbitant diſtillation of corn and malt in Scotland, which has now grown to ſuch a height, as to occaſion all the effects of a real ſcarcity of bread to the poor.

September 27. His Majeſty's ſhip the Jaſon, Capt. Mac-Bride, ſailed the 24th of Auguſt, from Madeira, to proſecute new diſcoveries in the South-ſeas.

On Wedneſday night laſt, one of the moſt celebrated ſingers of the age, went, out of a frolic, properly habited, to try what ſhe could do in the ſtreets with her voice and a guittar: She took her ſtand near St. Clement's church, and picked up a good deal of money, and would have continued to divert herſelf and the byſtanders; but a gentleman who was going by with his wife in his chariot, was ſo captivated by the voice of the ſyren, that he made a pretence to ſend his old lady on, and then laid ſuch cloſe ſiege to the vocal performer, as made her retreat for fear of a diſcovery.

Extract of a Letter from Wotton-Baſſet, Wiltſhire, Sept. 20.

"We are in the utmoſt conſternation here, and throughout the county, as well as Glouceſterſhire, having, at every market town hereabout, had riots on account of the dearneſs of corn. I this moment hear there are ſome thouſands this day at Malmſbury, where they have ſeized all the corn, and ſell it at 5s. per buſhel, and return the farmers the money. The firſt riſe was among the clothing poor, who are three parts of them out of work."

Extract of a Letter from Hampton, in Glouceſterſhire, Sept. 23.

"I am but juſt come home, and find my family and ſiſter, and every thing, in very great confuſion, owing to the riſing of the poor, on account of the dearneſs of proviſions. One of my neighbour's houſes is in a manner deſtroyed, and I find it was with great difficulty mine and my ſiſter's were ſaved from the ſame fate. The country is in great confuſion, and God only knows how it will end. We ſhall continue to be viſited by them, and are obliged to comply with their requeſts, by giving money, liquor, &c. and whatever they demand. Buſineſs of every ſort is at a ſtand. The parts where I have been are in the ſame ſituation, and I never in all my life found buſineſs ſo dull, or greater complaints for want of money."

September 30. A piece of Dutch inhumanity was performed on Sunday laſt, on board one of their men of war in Plymouth harbour:----A poor Engliſh ſailor, who had been ſhipwrecked in Holland, being willing to return to his native country, procured a paſſage in a Dutch ſhip to England; but on the ſhip's arrival at the above port, they would not permit him to go on ſhore; upon which he petitioned the Admiral there, who ordered an officer to go and take him out. The officer went, but was refuſed the man, and queſtioned how he came to know the man was there; the officer then ſhewed the petition, which ſo exaſperated the Dutch officers, that the Admiral's officer had no ſooner left the ſhip, than they ſeized the poor man, and gave him three hundred ſtrokes with a five inch rope, which mangled his back and ſides in ſuch a manner, that large quantities of his fleſh were ſwabbed up by the decks, and his cries were heard near a mile; not a ſailor on board any of the ſhips in Catwater could bear to ſtay upon deck. It is ſaid that on Monday the Admiral ſent another order for the man; but the officer was refuſed admittance into the ſhip; upon which, we hear, the Captain of the Burford man of war went on board, and upon examining and ſearching the ſhip, took out nine Engliſh ſailors, men and boys, ſome of whom they had kidnapped here, by perſuading them to go on board and ſee if they liked to ſail with them, and then clapped them in irons. We hear that the poor man cannot ſurvive his puniſhment.----It is hoped theſe inhuman brutes will be made to anſwer for this unheard of cruelty.

It is expected that our Miniſtry will examine into the inſult lately offered by the Captain of a Dutch man of war at Plymouth, upon his Majeſty's ſubjects; and if the Captain has acted contrary to the honour and dignity of the Britiſh Crown, that he may be puniſhed according to his deſerts, ſo as to prevent the like inſult (committed in an Engliſh harbour, and under the protection of Engliſh cannon) for the future.

We have received from good authority the following account of Mr. Wildman's performances, at Earl Spencer's ſeat, at Wimbledon, in Surry.

Being ſent for to wait on his Lordſhip the 17th of September, to perform ſome of his curioſities in the bee way, he attended accordingly, and ſeveral of the Nobility and perſons of faſhion were aſſembled; the Counteſs had provided three ſtocks of bees.

The firſt of his performances was with one hive of bees hanging on his hat, which he carried in his hand, and the hive which they came out of in the other hand; which was to convince the Earl and Counteſs that he could take honey and wax without deſtroying the bees. Then he returned into the room, and came out again with them hanging on his chin, with a very venerable beard. After ſhewing them to the company, he took them out upon the graſs walk, facing his Lordſhip's window, where a table and table cloth were immediately brought out, and he ſet the hive upon the table, and made the bees hive therein; then he made the bees come out again and ſwarm in the air, the ladies and nobility ſtanding amongſt them, and no perſon ſtung by them; he made them go on the table, and took them up by handfuls, and toſſed them up and down like ſo many peas; then made them go into their hive at the word of command. Near five o'clock in the afternoon he exhibited again with the three ſwarms of bees, one on his head, one on his breaſt, and the other on his arm, and then went to his Lordſhip, who was too much indiſpoſed to ſee the former experiments; the hives which the bees were taken from were carried by one of the ſervants. He went into a room again, and came out with them all over his head, face, and eyes, and was led blind before his Lordſhip's window. He then begged of his Lordſhip that he would lend him one of his horſes, which was granted, and was brought out in his body clothes. He then mounted the horſe, with the bees all over his head and face (except his eyes) and breaſt, and left arm, with a whip in his right hand, and the groom then led the horſe backwards and forwards by his Lordſhip's window for ſome time. He then took the reins in his hand, and rode round the houſe. He then diſmounted, and made the bees march upon a table, and commanded them to retire to their hive, which they accordingly did, and gave great ſatisfaction to the Earl and Counteſs, and all the ſpectators.

Extract of a Letter from Norwich, September 28.

"Yeſterday a very terrible mob aſſembled here, and have done many thouſand pounds worth of damage; they are not yet quelled, and where it will end we don't know."

Extract of a Letter from Oxford, Sept. 28.

"For theſe five days paſt continually the mob have riſen and traverſed the ſtreets of this city in a tumultuous manner, on account of the high price of corn, and other proviſions. It conſiſts of a miſerable and meagre crew of men, women and children, that were never obſerved to have exiſtence before, who iſſue from holes and receſſes, and, like a ſwarm of locuſts, ſeem to threaten devaſtation to whatever is eatable, without a proſpect of thriving by the repaſt. They are headed by a ſett of deſperate fellows, who enter mills and houſes, and ſeizing upon flour, corn, butcher's meat, bacon and cheeſe, expoſe them to ſale at an under price, returning the money to the owners. This happening in our race week, many gentlemen could not avoid being ſpectators of the event, who, at the ſame time that they commiſerate the real diſtreſſes of the poor, wiſh to ſee public order and œconomy reſtored. The Magiſtrates too ſeem in great perplexity, who, with the faireſt aſſurances of relief, as well as threats to the delinquents, endeavour to pacify and diſperſe the mad rabble. Parties of them have alſo iſſued out into the ſeveral roads leading to this market, intercepted the proviſions bringing hither, and ſold them to the next poor people. Freſh accounts of the like diſturbances are brought in hourly from Abingdon, Woodſtock, and Witney; and there never was a time in which there appeared more occaſion for ſome vigorous and prudent methods, both to repreſs theſe exceſſes, and remedy their cauſes."

A letter from Witney, in Oxfordſhire, dated on Saturday laſt, ſays, "While I am writing, great numbers of the poor in this town and neighbourhood, pinched by the ſevere preſſure of the times, are now riſing here, and committing depredations, as in in other places."

Northampton, Sept. 22. In conſequence of the reſolution entered into, by the Nobility and Gentry, at the anniverſary of our County-hoſpital laſt Thurſday, relative to the reduction of the preſent high prices of wheat, and other grain, there was on Saturday a greater quantity of thoſe neceſſary commodities brought to market than has been for many weeks paſt (though not nearly ſufficient for the neceſſities of the poor, or to ſupply the demand of the market) but, in all probability, there will be next Saturday a ſtill more ample one, as we are certainly informed the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the greateſt property in this neighbourhood have made their tenants promiſe, under pain of their utmoſt diſpleaſure, to threſh out immediately, and bring to market, a ſufficient quantity of corn to remedy the preſent ſcarcity, which is moſt apparently artificial, and not real.

Lyme, in Dorſetſhire, Sept. 18. The mob which was coming here, being informed of our preparations to repel their attacks, marched towards Otterly and Columpton, where they have already done ſome damage, and have uſed the Juſtices exceeding ill. It is expected much miſchief will be done at thoſe places next Tueſday; but to prevent it as much as poſſible, a detachment of horſe was ſent them from hence this day, and two others from Dorcheſter. The diſtreſſes of the poor are melancholy beyond deſcription; and every thing has been done in this place to relieve their wants: Several cargoes of wheat and flour have been lately imported; and ſome of the proprietors ſell at prime coſt their wheat at 5s. 8d. a buſhel, and the flour at three halfpence a pound, which is a great relief to numbers of poor families in this neighbourhood.

Bath, Sept. 22. We are informed that Lord and Lady Chatham have ſent an order to their ſeat in the Weſt, to ſell their wheat to the inhabitants of the three pariſhes at 7s. per buſhel; which, according to Wincheſter meaſure, is 4s. 6d. per buſhel.

Wedneſday upwards of 200 labouring men aſſembled in a riotous manner at Berkeley, in Glouceſterſhire, and threatened great depredations to the farmers in that neighbourhood, if they did not lower the price of corn at the adjacent markets; alledging, that proviſions were ſo dear, that many of them could not ſupply their families barely with bread alone.

Thurſday a mob, conſiſting of ſeveral thouſand men, aſſembled at Beckington, in this county, in order to pull down the mills, and carry off the flour; but the Miller and his ſon, having previous notice of their intentions, provided themſelves with fire-arms, and on their refuſal to diſperſe, they fired on them, and, it is ſaid, killed a man and a boy, and deſperately wounded ſeveral others; this ſo exaſperated the mob, that they immediately made a fire with ſticks, and throwing the firebrands on the mills (which were thatched) ſoon burnt them to the ground.

There have been like inſurrections of the populace in ſeveral other places in this county, on account of the dearneſs of proviſions, where mills have been torn down, and the corn carried off and divided among them.

One day laſt week a farmer going to Tetbury market with a quantity of bacon and cheeſe, was met on the road by a mob of people, who aſked him the price of his commodities, which not being to their ſatisfaction, they took it all from him, and ſold it to the poor, the bacon at 4d. a pound, old cheeſe at 3d. halfpenny, and the new at 2d. halfpenny, and afterwards gave him the money. There has likewiſe been a great diſturbance in Tetbury, on account of the farmers refuſing to bring their goods to market: The principal man of the mob, it is ſaid, was ſo roughly handled by the farmers, that he is ſince dead.

On Friday a monopolizer of proviſions, at a place in Wiltſhire, had 50 flitches of bacon, and upwards of a ton of cheeſe, taken from him by a number of poor men.

Oxford, Sept. 26. Tueſday, the 23d inſtant, the mob, ſeeing ſome extraordinary amaſſing of corn together, took occaſion to make enquiry into it, and cut ſeveral of the ſacks; but then but a ſmall number, they proceeded no further till Wedneſday night, when they went in a large body to Holywell-mill, where they ſeized and diſtributed at leaſt 200 ſacks of flour among the populace.

They then proceeded to Oſſiney, and the Caſtle-mills, where the owners attended, and agreed to bring their corn to the market-place, and ſell it at 5s. a buſhel, which quieted the populace. They afterwards went to the dealers in bacon, cheeſe, candles and butter, making a ſtrict enquiry into the coſt of manufacturing the ſame, and have fixed on the following prices, viz. bacon 6d. cheeſe 2d. halfpenny and 3d. candles 5d. halfpenny, ſoap 5d. butter 6d. per pound, which was immediately complied with.

Briſtol, Sept. 17. Thurſday ſe'nnight a large mob of poor people, conſiſting of near 2000, went to North-Bradley mill, and pulled down part of it, broke all the windows of the houſe and mill, and ſhared what corn they found there amongſt themſelves.

From Bradford and Trowbridge, in Wiltſhire, we have accounts of the populace proceeding in the ſame riotous manner, not only ſhewing their reſentment to dealers in corn and flour, but alſo to jobbers of cheeſe, and other proviſions, ſeizing whatever they met with, and laying them under injunctions not to deal in thoſe articles for the future.

Reading, Sept. 27. We hear from Newbury, that the principal inhabitants of that place have raiſed a ſum of money by ſubſcription, to ſupply the honeſt induſtrious poor of the town with bread at 9d. the gallon loaf, during the continuance of the preſent high price of wheat; and the Magiſtrates have cauſed public notice to be given, that, in caſe of any tumultuous aſſembling of any diſorderly perſons, they will immediately read the riot act.

Yeſterday, at a general veſtry of the pariſhioners of Boxford, in this county, it was unanimouſly agreed to raiſe by rates a ſum of money for the purchaſing a quantity of wheat, that the poor of the ſaid pariſh may be ſupplied at 5s. per buſhel till the meeting of Parliament.

WILLIAMSBURG, November 27.

A Bill is brought into the Honourable the Houſe of Burgeſſes for erecting a Statue to his Majeſty, as a grateful Acknowledgment for repealing the Stamp Act, and thereby reſtoring the Rights and Privileges of his American Subjects; alſo an Obeliſk, to commemorate the Services of thoſe noble and worthy Patriots that diſtinguiſhed themſelves in bringing about that happy Event.

BOSTON, December 4.

We hear from Dedham, that laſt Tueſday ſe'nnight a Child of about 16 Months old being at play near the Fore Pond of a Mill, whilſt it was a going, fell in, and although the Miller had the Precaution immediately to ſtop the Mill, yet it was quite dead before it could be taken up.

NEW-YORK, December 11.

By Captain Berrien from St. Euſtatia, and Captain Darrel from Nevis, both arrived here ſince our laſt, we have Advice, that an Expreſs having been ſent down from St. Kitts to St. Euſtatia, with the Depoſition of William Harris, Mariner, relating to the barbarous Murder of Captain Duryee, of the Sloop Polly, of this Place, and ſeveral others then with him, by two Aſſaſſins, one of them called Joſeph Andrews, the Portugueſe, had been apprehended at Euſtatia, and tried there for that Crime.---At his Trial he confeſſed that he murdered two of them with his own Hands, with a Mallet, and aſſiſted in all the reſt; that they had conſpired to do it ſeveral Days before, chiefly for the Hopes of the Booty they expected in Caſh on board, which it ſeems turned out vaſtly ſhort of their Expectations.---That they had deſigned to kill Harris alſo, who gave the Evidence at St. Kitts againſt them, before they got aſhore; but that Evening getting pretty much in Liquor, they fell aſleep, when Harris eſcaped; and when they awoke they ſuppoſed he had fell overboard, and was drowned.----Andrews confeſſed he deſerved to die, for that theſe were not the firſt Murders he had been concerned in: He was thereupon ſentenced to Death on the Rack, after the Dutch Method; which Sentence was to be executed on the 15th of November laſt.----His Companion Nicholas Johnſon, the Dutchman, had ſailed in a Veſſel for Caſco-Bay, in New-England, a few Hours before Advice arrived at St. Euſtatia; but an Expreſs was ſent after him in another Veſſel; and there is no Room to doubt but he will be taken there, and meet ſome of his juſt Demerits; the Providence of God hardly ever ſuffering in this Life ſuch atrocious Wickedneſs to eſcape exemplary Puniſhment. They had been ſome Days at St. Euſtatia before the Intelligence came there, and lived away bravely with the Money they had robbed the Veſſel of.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

By the HALIFAX Packet, Capt. BOULDERSON, arrived at New-York from Falmouth, we have the following Advices, viz.

BERLIN, September 23.

SIR Andrew Mitchell, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from Great-Britain, has had ſome private audiences of his Majeſty within theſe few days, ſince which he has diſpatched a courier to his Court. It is not doubted, that ſome important negotiation is upon the carpet between the two Courts.

Hanover, September 23. A regulation has been made, by virtue of which, the troops of this Electorate will conſiſt for the future of 25,000 men.

Hague, September 30. Sir Joſeph Yorke, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the King of Great-Britain, will ſet out to-morrow for Helvoetſluys, to wait for the arrival of the Princeſs Caroline Matilda, in order to pay his compliments to her, and attend her through part of this province.

St. Ildephonſo, Sept. 15. Advices are juſt received by the American packet of a great earthquake in the Iſle of Cuba, which has overturned and diſmantled the city of St. Jago, in which very happily not above forty lives were loſt; but it was ſcarcely felt at the Havannah.

Copenhagen, Sept. 23. Count Horn, the Swediſh Ambaſſador, arrived here on the 16th inſtant, accompanied by nine Cavaliers d'Ambaſſade. He notified his arrival to the Foreign Miniſters on the 18th, and yeſterday had his firſt audience of the King and the Royal Family, who removed to Copenhagen for this purpoſe; where they are to remain till the departure of the Princeſs Royal.

Venice, September 19. The regency of Tripoli has given ſalt to the value of 10,000 ſequins, and other goods to the amount of 4000, and refitted the ſhips belonging to the ſquadron which we ſent there, by way of indemnification for the damage which their corſairs did our ſubjects. They ſaluted our ſquadron with 27 guns when it entered the port of Tripoli, and the Senator Nany, who commanded it, was treated with great honour by the Bey. This ſquadron will leave Tripoli the 22d inſtant, in order to return hither.

The Senate has rewarded the Commander Nany, by creating him a Knight of the Golden Star; and our Conſul at Tripoli with a preſent of 1000 ſequins, beſides a penſion of 100 ſequins per annum, for his behaviour upon this occaſion.

Paris, September 27. Since the unfortunate expedition of Larache, an exchange of the priſoners which fell into the hands of the King of Morocco has been negociating, and we were in hopes was almoſt brought to a happy concluſion; but we have lately received advice, that the Barbarian King will not liſten to any reaſonable propoſition, that he expects to have all our priſoners redeemed at once, and demands a ranſom of 18,000 livres for each of them.

Hague, October 2. We hear that as ſoon as the Engliſh yachts appear on this coaſt, the Prince Stadtholder, and the Prince and Princeſs of Naſſau-Weilbourg, will go to Delfshaven, to receive the Queen of Denmark.

Copenhagen, Sept. 24. The Princeſs Sophia Magdelain will be married here by proxy the firſt of next month, to the Prince Royal of Sweden, and next day his Royal Highneſs will ſet out from Stockholm, but the place where he is to meet his royal ſpouſe is not mentioned.

Mezzana, May 30. The ſituation of the inhabitants of the neighbouring garriſon of Ajaccio is become very critical. A ballad was lately compoſed, and ſung in the ſtreets there, in honour of liberty and our country. The Genoeſe commiſſary conſidering this as an inſult, had it ſtrictly prohibited; in conſequence of which a mob enſued, and a man, of the name of Cappone, has been hanged. Reports have been ſpread, as if the citizens of Ajaccio had conſpired againſt the French garriſon; to which they have always ſhewn the moſt reſpectful attention. The greateſt diffidence and jealouſly prevails among the citizens of Ajaccio, many of whom, and thoſe of the firſt rank, have retired to this place, where they can live in greater ſecurity and freedom.

Madrid, Sept. 16. The Sieur de Bougainville is arrived at St. Ildephonſo, from Paris, with the ratification of the ceſſion of the Malouines Iſlands, which France has made to this court; and he will ſoon embark at Ferrol for thoſe Iſlands, in order to deliver the ſame to the Commiſſaries appointed by his Majeſty to receive it.

Copenhagen, Sept. 29. The Baroneſs de Pleſſen, Miſtreſs of the Houſhold of our future Queen, has given notice, that ſhe will make a preſent of forty crowns to each young couple who ſhall marry in the bailiwick of Hirſcholm, on the 1ſt of October next, the day on which the nuptials of the King, and of the Princeſs Sophia-Magdelain are to be ſolemnized. Fourteen couple have already determined to marry on that day.

Oct. 4. On the 1ſt inſt. the marriage ceremony between their Royal Highneſſes the Prince of Sweden, and the Princeſs Sophia Magdelain of Denmark, was celebrated by proxy, in the chapel royal of Chriſtianſburg, in Copenhagen. Prince Frederick of Denmark was proxy upon this occaſion.

A ſucceſſion of entertainments has ſince then been given by the Court, and the Miniſters of the Council. The Swediſh Ambaſſador is to have the honour of preſenting one to the Royal Family to-morrow: He is to accompany the Princeſs to Helſinborg, on Wedneſday, the 7th inſtant.

Hague, Oct. 10. Yeſterday morning, a little before 9 o'clock, the Queen of Denmark landed ſafely at Rotterdam, from whence her Majeſty ſet out for Utrecht, in the Prince of Orange's yacht, between 10 and 11 before noon. The Prince of Orange, the Prince and Princeſs of Naſſau Weilbourg, and Prince Lewis of Brunſwick, received her Majeſty on her landing, and conducted her to the apartment in the Admiralty-Houſe, which the Magiſtrates of Rotterdam had fixed upon as the moſt convenient for her Majeſty to arrive at, and where ſhe was pleaſed to receive the compliments of the regency of that city. The Princeſs of Weilbourg accompanied the Queen through the town to her yacht, amidſt the acclamations of the people, where the Prince of Orange again received her Majeſty, and took leave.

Ratiſbon, Oct. 2. There is much talk here of a triple alliance which is on the tapis between Great-Britain, Ruſſia, and a third power; and it is added that three other powers will be invited to accede thereto. This triple alliance will probably induce two powerful ſtates to enter into a ſtill cloſer league.

LONDON.

October 2. A letter from Norwich, dated September 28, ſays, "A general inſurrection began yeſterday at noon; the proclamation was read in the market place, where victuals of all kinds was thrown from one part to another; the new mill (a very large and expenſive building) is almoſt entirely down; the flour thrown, ſack after ſack, into the river, and the proprietors books, receipts, and ſome money, all ſtolen or deſtroyed. At night, every baker in town had his windows broken, and many had their furniture demoliſhed in the ſtreets. This morning they were diſperſed, but met again at four o'clock this afternoon, and are ten times more deſperate than ever. Several of the court have been near being killed by ſtones from the mob, in endeavouring to quell them. A large malt houſe is now actually in flames, ſeveral houſes tearing down, and the magiſtracy and the city in the greateſt conſternation for the event, which muſt (as we have no military force) be fatal and bloody. The court have this minute ſummoned every houſe-keeper to take a ſtaff and oppoſe the rioters; what ſucceſs it will be attended with, we are all impatient to learn."

Yeſterday evening, at half an hour after ſeven o'clock, her Royal Higneſs Princeſs Caroline Maltilda, was married at the Chapel Royal, at St. James's; his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York was proxy for the King of Denmark, and the ceremony was performed by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.

This morning at a quarter paſt ſix her Majeſty the Queen of Denmark, ſet out from Carlton-Houſe, Pall-mall, for Harwich, accompanied by his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter, the Right Hon. Lady Mary Boothby, and Count de Bothmar, her Majeſty's Vice Chamberlain, in a train of three coaches, eſcorted by parties of the Light Horſe, Horſe Grenadiers, and Life Guards, and a numerous train of domeſticks and attendants.

The parting between the Queen of Denmark and her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales was extremely tender; the young Queen was obſerved, on getting into her coach, to ſhed tears, which greatly affected the populace aſſembled in Pall-Mall to ſee her departure.

The Horſe Grenadier and Life Guards, after eſcorting the Queen of Denmark to Mile End, returned to town; but a party of Light Horſe went on to the ſeat of Lord Abercorn, where her Majeſty is to dine, and lie to night.

Yeſterday Sir Alexander Gilmore, one of the Clerks-Comptrollers of the Board of Green Cloth, ſet out for Harwich, to make the neceſſary preparations for the reception of the Queen of Denmark on board the yachts, which will ſail for Rotterdam with the firſt fair wind.

Extract of a Letter from Leghorn, July 15.

"It has been rumoured here, that the Corſicans have of late been building a number of flat-bottomed boats, with intention to make a deſcent upon Genoa with a body of 30,000 men, and by one bold ſtroke revenge the ſeverities which they have ſo long ſuffered from their old oppreſſors.

"For theſe ſeveral weeks paſt expreſſes have been continually coming and going between Genoa and Paris, as it is ſaid that the Court of France, diſpleaſed on many accounts with the Genoeſe Senate, has threatened to recal the troops now ſtationed in the garriſons of Corſica. If that ſhould take place, it is ſaid that the Genoeſe are determined to throw themſelves into the arms of a certain Northern Potentate, who wants only a pretext to get a footing in Italy; and has of late, while he appeared as if in a profound ſlumber, been meditating a project which the hardieſt politicians will be aſtoniſhed at. In ſhort, whiſpers are paſſing acroſs the continent, as if ſuch deſigns were on the carpet as have not been thought of ſince the days of the Goths."

They write from Leghorn, that a Tunifian xebeque of twelve guns, had been ſunk by a Neapolitan man of war, near the iſle of Monaco, in the Mediterranean, after an engagement of two hours; in which the crew of the xebeque were either all drowned, or taken priſoners.

Oct. 4. The great regard which the government has ſhewn to the laws of the land, and their unwillingneſs to take any ſtep that ſeemed contrary to them, is very manifeſt in their orders about preventing the further exportation of corn, and muſt give a very ſenſible pleaſure to all true Engliſhmen. Nothing but the preſervation of the people from the dreadful miſery of a famine, could induce the government to exert the power of the Royal prerogative, and prevail upon them to lay an embargo on all ſhips laden with wheat and flour; and the neceſſity of ſuch meaſures is ſo very apparent, that even thoſe who may be injured by it, cannot but own the rectitude of it. Never was the Royal prerogative more apparently exerted for the good of the people than on this occaſion, as the happieſt conſequences may be expected from it. The price of corn will of courſe immediately fall conſiderably, and the poor, who were induced by their diſtreſſes to riſe tumultuouſly in almoſt every county, to the danger of their own lives, and the loſs of all order, will now be able to get bread at a reaſonable rate, and, conſequently, we ſhall hear no more of ſuch dangerous riotings. May every future government ſhew the ſame tender regard for the laws as the preſent have done; and may the Royal prerogative be ever exerted on the like occaſions, for the manifeſt good of the people, as it hath been now.

Their Royal Highneſſes the Dukes of York and Glouceſter, Prince Henry, and the Princeſs of Brunſwick, were at Carlton houſe between 5 and 6 on Thurſday morning, to take leave of their Royal Siſter, which was very affecting on all ſides.

Yeſterday there was a very numerous and ſpendid Court at St. James's, when his Majeſty received the congratulations of the Nobility, on the marriage of the Princeſs Caroline Matilda.

The Count de Horn, who is gone as Ambaſſador Extraordinary from Sweden to the Court of Denmark, on account of the marriage of the Prince Royal of Sweden to the Princeſs Sophia-Magdelain, his Daniſh Majeſty's eldeſt ſiſter (whoſe nuptials were to be celebrated as laſt Wedneſday by proxy at Copenhagen) has, in his retinue, twelve ſuperb coaches, and other carriages; and the preſents with which he is charged for the Princeſs, conſiſt of a gold ſnuff-box enriched with brilliants, and adorned with the portrait of the Prince her conſort; another portrait of the ſame Prince, enriched with jewels; a diamond necklace, an aigrette, and a diamond ring, and alſo ſeveral fine pearl necklaces.

It is ſaid the Right Hon. Richard Rigby, Eſq; Member for Taviſtock, will be appointed one of the Poſtmaſters General, in the room of Lord Grantham.

And that Earl Gower will be appointed Maſter of the Wardrobe, in the room of the Earl of Aſhburnham.

By letters in yeſterday's French mail from Cadiz and Madrid, we have undoubted accounts, that the ranſom of the Manillas was happily ſettled between that Court and our's; in conſequence of which, an expreſs was ſent to Vera Cruz, ordering the Flota to ſail for Europe; which had been detained by order of the Spaniſh Court, ſome little time before, inſomuch that the expreſs met the Flota after being at ſea three days, and returned to Vera Cruz, and unloaded the treaſure, until further orders.

Yeſterday morning a Meſſenger arrived at St. James's, with the agreeable news that her Majeſty the Queen of Denmark arrived at Harwich, in perfect health, at four o'clock on Thurſday laſt.

At preſent there are nine Princes and Princeſſes Royal of the Crown of Great-Britain, and nine Princes and Princeſſes in the ſecond degree, all deſcendants of our late moſt gracious Sovereign King George the ſecond and Queen Caroline. " My Lord Chatham has ordered his Bailiff here to ſell wheat to the poor, and thoſe of a middle rank in the pariſh, at four ſhillings and ſix-pence a buſhel, Wincheſter meaſure. As his Lordſhip's eſtate in his hands is above four hundred pounds a year, and runs chiefly on corn, his charity will be more extenſive, and claim the greater merit. It is hoped this example will encourage Charity among the great."

Extract of a Letter from Harwich, dated laſt Friday morning.

" Her Daniſh Majeſty got to Harwich exactly a quarter after four o'clock. The wind being at N. E. it was not thought proper for her Majeſty to embark. She then went to Mr. Davis's, Collector of the Cuſtoms, dined, ſupped, and lay there; and this morning embarked, at half paſt eleven, with her whole retinue, though the wind is contrary, and they are ſtill lying in the road. Her Majeſty was preceded by Col. Deſaguliers, and another gentleman in a coach and ſix. Mr. Reed, clerk of the ſtables, had direction of the relays of horſes, and the entire care of her Majeſty's perſon, and the embarkation was committed to Col. Deſaguliers. Count Bothmar, and attendants, followed in another coach and ſix.

" Her Majeſty was dreſſed in a bloom colour, with white flowers. Wherever ſhe paſſed, the earneſt wiſhes of the people were for her health, and praying to God to protect her from the perils of the ſea."

From Helvoetſluys to Copenhagen is about 600 Engliſh miles; and we are told the route of her Daniſh Majeſty will be from Helvoet to Rotterdam, from thence to Scrolla, from thence to Munſter, Paderborn, and Oſnaburgh; and after going through part of the electorate of Hanover, will enter the Duchy of Bremen, and then through the Duchy of Linburgh; will reſt for a night at the caſtle of Harburgh, and then croſs the Elbe in one of the Daniſh royal yachts, when her Majeſty will enter Holſtein, part of the Daniſh dominions, where ſhe will be received by his Majeſty.

It is ſaid, that the Hon. James Stewart Mackinzie, brother to Lord Bute, will be created an Engliſh Baron.

We are aſſured, that the noble Duke was not diſmiſſed, as mentioned in laſt Saturday's papers, but reſigned, through a ſpirit of moderation, thinking, probably, that as his eldeſt ſon had lately been advanced to the head of the army, and was before maſter of the ordnance, three ſuch great employments were too lucrative to be engroſſed by one family.

Yeſterday diſpatches were again received at the Secretaries of State's Office from his Excellency Sir Andrew Mitchell, Ambaſſador at the Pruſſian Court.

His Excellency Prince de Mazerano, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, holds frequent conferences with the Miniſtry, on the ſubject of the Manilla ranſom, which, it is ſaid, is to be all made at one payment.

This calamity happened on the 11th of June laſt, about midnight; though there were not above forty lives loſt, yet the number of the maimed and wounded was far more conſiderable. The ſame earthquake was pretty violent at Bayamo, a port in that iſland, and ſlight ſhocks ſtill continued to be felt when the accounts came away.

" A northern young Potentate, when on the eve of marriage with an amiable Princeſs, wrote a letter with his own hand to his intended Royal Bride, in which, amongſt other gallant expreſſions, we have it ſtrongly affirmed to us, is the following: " With a Crown you gain too a Heart, not, I truſt, unworthy your poſſeſſing; and though you loſe a Parent and a Brother, you may be aſſured of meeting with all the tenderneſs of both, and ſomething yet beyond it, in the warm affection of a Huſband."

" It is confidently ſaid, that the public are very materially (it has been ſaid almoſt ſolely) indebted to the ardor and perſuaſive eloquence of the Right Hon. Charles Townſhend, for that timely embargo which gives ſuch general ſatisfaction; and which, we are further informed, was chiefly drawn up by him."

Extract of a letter from Genoa, dated Sept. 17.

" Theſe letters add, that the differences between England and Spain, on the ſubject of the Manilla ranſom, are at length amicably terminated; that in conſequence thereof, the court of Madrid will pay 70,000 pieces, that is to ſay, 30,000 on the arrival of the Spaniſh fleet from the Indies, and 40,000 in two other payments, at a ſtipulated time.

The letters by yeſterday's Holland mail give an account, that the King's yachts arrived at Rotterdam laſt Wedneſday evening, that the Queen of Denmark lay on board the yacht that night, and landed on Thurſday morning at half an hour after 8 o'clock, when her Majeſty was received by the Prince Stadtholder, the Prince and Princeſs of Naſſau Weildbourg, the Duke of Brunſwick, and Count Bentinck. There is advice from Berlin, of the 30th of laſt month, that his Pruſſian Majeſty had not only confirmed Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, in the dignity of Dean of the church of Magdeburgh, but had likewiſe granted to that Prince, who was already Provoſt of St. Sebaſtian's, in the ſame city, the enſigns of a particular order, being a golden croſs, enamelled with white, and crowned; charged on one ſide with four ſable croſiers, and on the other with a figure of the patron of the church. CHARLES-TOWN, in South-Carolina, Dec. 1. 1766.

A beacon is forthwith to be erected upon Middle Bay Iſland, near the Bar, to be built of brick, 115 feet high, with a lanthorn on the top, ſo that it may occaſionally ſerve as a light-houſe, which will be of very great ſervice to the navigation.

It has been lately reported in the Cherokee country, that the Chikeſahs have joined the Chactahs in their war againſt the Creeks, and ſurprized and deſtroyed three of their Upper Towns, with all the inhabitants. But this report, at preſent, ſeems to want confirmation.

BOSTON, December 11.

We hear that on Saturday evening laſt, the houſe of Mr. Tucker, of Cumberland, near Providence, was conſumed to aſhes, and himſelf and two children burnt therein. It is thought the fire was occaſioned by a candle left with the children when put to bed: There was a quantity of flax in the room, and the children calling out fire! Mr. Tucker went up and threw ſome water on the flax, which occaſioned ſo much ſmoke, that it ſuffocated him and the children.

The houſe it is ſaid paſſed reſolutions to the following effect, previous to ſending up the bill. That the grant was made in loyal and grateful regard to his Majeſty's mild and gracious recommendation, for the ſake of internal peace and order, but without any regard to the Governor's interpretation, and under a full perſuaſion the ſufferers had no juſt claim or demand of right againſt the Province; and that thoſe of them who applied home, inſtead of firſt applying here, are very reprehenſible. That the reſolves of Aſſembly here laſt year could not be the occaſion of riots two months preceding.

NEW-YORK, December 15.

Exeract of a Letter from St. Euſtatia, November 12, 1766.

" I wrote a few Days paſt [this Letter is not come to Hand] incloſing a News Paper, with an Account of a late horrid Murder, and that one of the Villains, Nicholas Johnſon, was taken. He and the other Murderer, Joſeph Andrews, came here in a Boat, and remained till William Harris's Depoſition, giving an Account of the Murder, made its Appearance here in the St. Chriſtopher's Gazette, ſoon after which, Andrews departed in a Veſſel bound to Caſco-Bay.

" As ſoon as his Honour Governor Dewint ſaw the Paper, he immediately publiſhed a Proclamation that no Perſon ſhould carry either of the Murderers off the Iſland, under the Penalty of 50,000 Pieces of Eight, and cauſed the moſt diligent Search to be made for them; it was too late to ſecure Andrews, but Johnſon was ſoon taken, and in his Cuſtody the Cheſt and Clothes of the Captain, marked with his Name. By the Laws here, no Man can be put to Death but by his own Confeſſion, notwithſtanding ever ſo many Witneſſes againſt him, but as he is put to the Rack, and tortured more or leſs in proportion to the Appearances or Evidence againſt him, unleſs he makes a full Confeſſion without it, thoſe that are guilty ſeldom or ever eſcape, but knowing what they muſt expect, often make a full Confeſſion, without making any other Evidence neceſſary. For this Reaſon, Harris was not ſent for from St. Kitts, to give Evidence, and Johnſon, to avoid the Torture, made a full Confeſſion. He confeſſed that he killed the Mate, and threw one of the Boys alive overboard, the reſt of the horrid Buſineſs was performed by Andrews, who was the greateſt, at leaſt the moſt active Villain of the two, and had much the largeſt Share in the horrid Tranſaction.---It is therefore the earneſt Requeſt of all People here, eſpecially your Countrymen of New-York and North-America, that you will publiſh this Account, that as Joſeph Andrews has ſhewn himſelf to be an Enemy to Mankind, all Mankind may join to bring ſo bloody a Villain to Juſtice.

" Nicholas Johnſon is to be executed on Saturday next, the 15th Inſtant. He is to ſuffer on the Rack, that is, to be faſtened to a Croſs, where the Bones of his Arms, Legs and Thighs, are to be broken with an Iron Crow. [It is ſaid he confeſſed that this was not the firſt Time he has deſerved Death for Murder,---and as one of the Men who murdered the French Maſter of a Veſſel (who took them on board out of Charity) and afterwards put his Widow, Children and Negroe Woman, on board a Canoe, and turned them adrift at Sea, as publiſhed about a Year ago, and went by the Name of Johnſon; alſo one of the Murderers of a Traveller, laſt Winter in the Jerſies, near Piſcataway, was called by the ſame Name---it is not improbable that this is the very Man---and that Providence has conducted him to a Place, to ſuffer for his Crimes, where the Puniſhment is more adequate to the Heinouſneſs of them, than he could have found in the Engliſh Dominions."]

On the 12th of November arrived here Captain Denelt, from New-York, who on hearing an Account of this tragical Affair, was ſhocked beyond Deſcription, the Mate of Captain Duryee having been his Brother.

[It appears that the ſaid Joſeph Andrews is a Perſon about five Feet ſix Inches high, a Portugueſe of a ſwarthy Complexion, with very black curled Hair, well made, has a Wife at New-York, and lived in a Street called the Golden Hill, ſpeaks good Engliſh, and often attempted to paſs as a Welchman.]

Dec. 18. We are well aſſured from New-Jerſey, that upon the news of the ſeveral ſhips coming from England to load wheat, and its raiſing the price to a dollar a buſhel, that one ſingle farmer at Rariton, brought to market there one thouſand buſhels:---This proves there might be plenty of Wheat in this Country, if we had but farmers enough.---And notwithſtanding the dearneſs of proviſions in general here, it ſhews only money is wanting to procure them: For ſeveral of thoſe ſhips are already loaded and ſailed with wheat, both from this place and Philadelphia, and it has been brought to market ſince in ſuch plenty, that the price has fell conſiderably.

By the packet we have the following melancholy advice, relating to Captain Brigſtock, of the brig Briſtol Packet, bound from this port for Amſterdam, who on the 3d of September laſt, ſeven days after ſhe left this place, in a hard gale of wind, ſhipped a large ſea, which waſhed Captain Brigſtock, with three of his men overboard; the next ſea two of them got in again, but the Captain, with one John Brown, a ſeaman, were drowned:----The brig was hove on her beam-ends, loſt her main-top-maſt, and was otherways diſtreſſed.---She arrived at Falmouth, three or four days before the packet ſailed.

By letters from Africa, via Dominica, we learn that the ſoldiers at James's fort, on that coaſt, had formed a deſign in Auguſt laſt of ſeizing the fort, and murdering the officers, and other reſidents there; but the horrible conſpiracy was diſcovered by a ſoldier to the commanding officer, the night before it was to have been put in execution, who immediately put the ringleaders in irons, and ſent them by Commodore O'Hara to Senegal, to take their trials; that Governor M'Pherſon died in Auguſt; that two French ſnows were lying within gun ſhot of James's fort, trading for ſlaves, without the leaſt interruption, though detrimental to the Engliſh; that the commandant of James's fort receives, for the benefit of Governor O'Hara, for the clearing of veſſels, as follows, viz. for a ſhip, £ 11 11 0 ſterling; for other ſquare-rigged veſſels, £ 10 10 0; and for a ſloop or ſchooner. £ 8 0 0.

Captain Boulderſon ſays, that two Brigs for this Port, ſailed from Falmouth three Weeks before him; and that the Duke of Cumberland Packet, Captain Goodridge, arrived there from this Place the Day before he ſailed from thence.

Captain Boulderſon alſo ſays, that ſcarce one of the Jamaica men that arrived in England in the month of September, and beginning of October, but what received more or leſs damage on their voyages; many of their ſtouteſt three-deckers having loſt their maſts.

Thurſday Night laſt, between Nine and Ten o'Clock, four of the Perſons advertiſed in our laſt to have broke out of the Goal of this City, entered the Houſe of Mr. Francis, at the Sign of Queen Charlotte, in Water-ſtreet, while the Family were at Supper, when two of them went up two Pair of Stairs, and took away a Cheſt of Clothes, &c. belonging to one of the Lodgers, with which they all got off undiſcovered; the Cheſt was afterwards found on a Wharff in the Northern Liberties, broke open, and moſt of the Things taken out. Three of them, viz. Francis Conſiglio, John Morriſon, and Michael Haggerty, were taken the ſame Night on Society-hill, with ſome of the Goods in their Poſſeſſion.---The next Day William Bowman, who was concerned in the above Robbery, was taken at the Falls of Schuylkill; and the reſt of the Priſoners have ſince been retaken, except David Smith, and James Price.

They then went up Stairs for more Plunder, but hearing a Noiſe in the next Room to where they were, went off without any further Booty.

PROPOSALS for printing by Subſcription, in four Pages, large Folio, on a beautiful Letter, and good Paper,

The PENNSYLVANIA CHRONICLE, And UNIVERSAL ADVERTISER.

The firſt Number to be given GRATIS.

THE Subſcriber begs leave to inform the PUBLIC, That on the invitation and encouragement of ſeveral gentlemen of reputation, he has removed to the city of Philadelphia, from Providence, in the colony of Rhode-Iſland, where he has for ſome years paſt publiſhed a weekly paper, to general ſatisfaction, which is ſtill carried on under the ſuperintendance of one of his family; brought with him an elegant aſſortment of the neweſt types, and other printing materials, completed by the moſt ingenious artiſts; and taken a houſe near the Poſt-Office, where he has every thing in the beſt order, to enable him to execute the above deſign with the greateſt exactneſs.

And as it is his firm reſolution to act, in the courſe of his publications, with the ſtricteſt SECRECY, greateſt FREEDOM, and utmoſt IMPARTIALITY, and to form his paper on as extenſive and univerſal principles as any other on the continent (without intending to derogate, in the leaſt, from the merit of any) he flatters himſelf, he ſhall not fail of meeting with that encouragement, which his endeavours, an experience, ſhall be found to merit, from a generous and candid people; and more than this, he neither expects or deſires.

He intends to give his readers a weekly relation of the moſt remarkable and important occurrences, foreign and domeſtic, collected from the beſt magazines and papers in Europe and America; as well as from other ſources, having a particular regard to ſuch matters as ſhall moſt intimately relate to the welfare of the Colonies.-----To communicate advertiſements of every kind, the arrival and departure of ſhips, all intereſting marine intelligence, the prices of the ſtaple commodities of this province, every remarkable event, ſtriking anecdote, extraordinary phænomenon, accident, curious invention, improvement in agriculture, with ſuch ingenious obſervations, as he conceives may tend to the improvement, inſtruction, and entertainment of the PUBLIC, which he engages to uſe his utmoſt induſtry in ſelecting and procuring.---Nor ſhall a place be wanting for the judicious remarks, pieces of wit and humour, eſſays moral, political, geographical, hiſtorical, and poetical, of the learned and ingenious, in this and the neighbouring Provinces, whoſe general aſſiſtance is earneſtly requeſted, and to whom the paper ſhall be ever FREE, and their productions received with GRATITUDE.

Having eſtabliſhed an extenſive correſpondence in Europe, and the ſeveral Colonies in America, to enable him effectually to comply with the foregoing engagements, he is perſuaded that all due encouragement will be given to ſo laudable an undertaking, and therefore determined to proſecute his deſign as ſoon as a number of ſubſcribers are procured, ſufficient barely to ſupport its expence; relying on the kindneſs of the PUBLIC, for further encouragement, as his performance ſhall appear to deſerve it.

Thoſe ladies and gentlemen, who may favor him with their ſubſcriptions, ſhall, in the city, receive the PENNSYLVANIA CHRONICLE, and UNIVERSAL ADVERTISER, at their reſpective houſes; or, if in the country, forwarded to them by the firſt opportunity; nor ſhall any care or induſtry be wanting to tranſmit it to the moſt diſtant cuſtomers with all the expedition poſſible.---In order to give his readers the freſheſt accounts of ſuch occurrences as ſhall arrive between Thurſday and Monday, in every week, he propoſes to publiſh his paper on the laſt mentioned day.---The rates of the paper and advertiſements will be the ſame (though printed on a much larger ſheet than any in America) with thoſe heretofore and now printed in this city.---All advertiſements ſhall be punctually inſerted, in order as they come in, and be neither delayed or diſplaced, but ſhall appear in a fair and conſpicuous manner.---And as his utmoſt and conſtant ambition ſhall be, to give the moſt perfect ſatisfaction to the PUBLIC, he is reſolved no trouble or expence, within the compaſs of his power, ſhall be wanting to make his CHRONICLE, &c. as complete as poſſible; nor ſhall any partial or intereſted motives induce him to ſwerve from the aſſurances he has here given them.

Beſides a regular publication of the CHRONICLE, he purpoſes to carry on the printing-buſineſs in all its branches, in a correct, careful, and diligent manner; and any perſons, who may have occaſion to employ the PRESS, on application, will find him ever ready to ſerve them with honor and fidelity, on the baſis of which alone he founds his pretenſions to the public favor.

Subſcriptions for the PENNSYLVANIA CHRONICLE, and UNIVERSAL ADVERTISER, will be taken in by the Printer, at his houſe three doors to the eaſtward of the Poſt-Office, and nearly oppoſite the houſe of Mr. JOHN WISTER, in MARKET-STREET, and by ſeveral gentlemen, in this city and province, and the other colonies on the continent, who have kindly offered their aſſiſtance, and to whom ſubſcription papers will be tranſmitted.
